House Takes Up Foreign Aid Measure Today

Windup Likely for Thursday, with Wage Issue Deadlocked

WASHINGTON (AP) — Conferees who balked at providing more foreign aid money this year sought a House vote of confidence in their stand today.

Their action cast doubt on President Eisenhower's chances of getting the extra 190 million dollars the Senate had voted in a final supplemental money bill. Eisenhower protested that Congress had cut too sharply in reducing his foreign aid money bill to $3,722,350,000 last week.

He appeared likely to win on another foreign affairs front, however. The House agreed to take up a bill to authorize an extensive development program for Latin America. The Senate already has approved the bill, asked only this month.

With hope all but abandoned for a minimum wage bill this year, the Senate-House dispute over the final money measure provided the last major hurdle to adjournment of the post-convention session.

The windup could come tonight, but appeared more likely to be delayed until Thursday.

An apparently hopeless deadlock developed over efforts to compromise differences over minimum wage legislation. House members rejected two more Senate compromise offers. No further meetings were scheduled.

Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, the Democratic presidential nominee who led the Senate conferees, pledged in a statement "to take this fight to the American people."

The conference broke up over how many additional workers should be brought under wage-hour law coverage. The two bills had differed also on how high to raise the present $1 an hour wage minimum.

The dispute over foreign aid funds was likely to be less bitter, although the Senate may be forced to back down on that.

Rep. Albert Thomas (D-Tex.), who led the House conferees on the money bill, said he is convinced "the House will not agree to vote this additional 190 million dollars of foreign aid giveaway." He said agreement was reached on other items in the $305,042,732 bill.

1,530 Pupils Expected at Lisbon Schools

LISBON — An enrollment of 1,530, approximately 50 more than last year, is expected when Lisbon exempted village schools open next Wednesday.

McKinley School will have 160 pupils in kindergarten through the fifth grade; Lincoln school, 760, grades one through seven; and the high school, including the eighth grade, 510.

Russell C. Armitage, starting his first year as superintendent of Lisbon schools, said principals will meet with him Friday to discuss plans for the coming term.

Tuesday teachers will meet with their principals in the morning. The group will have lunch at Lincoln School, after which Dr. Paul N. Elbin, president of West Liberty Teachers College, will address the instructors.

A full day of classes is scheduled for Wednesday.

Supt. Armitage says the system's seven buses will have to make double runs again this year because of the number of children they must transport. Grades seven through 12 will begin classes at 8:25 a. m. and be dismissed at 3:40 p. m. The bus students in these grades will ride the first trip in the morning and second trip in the afternoon.

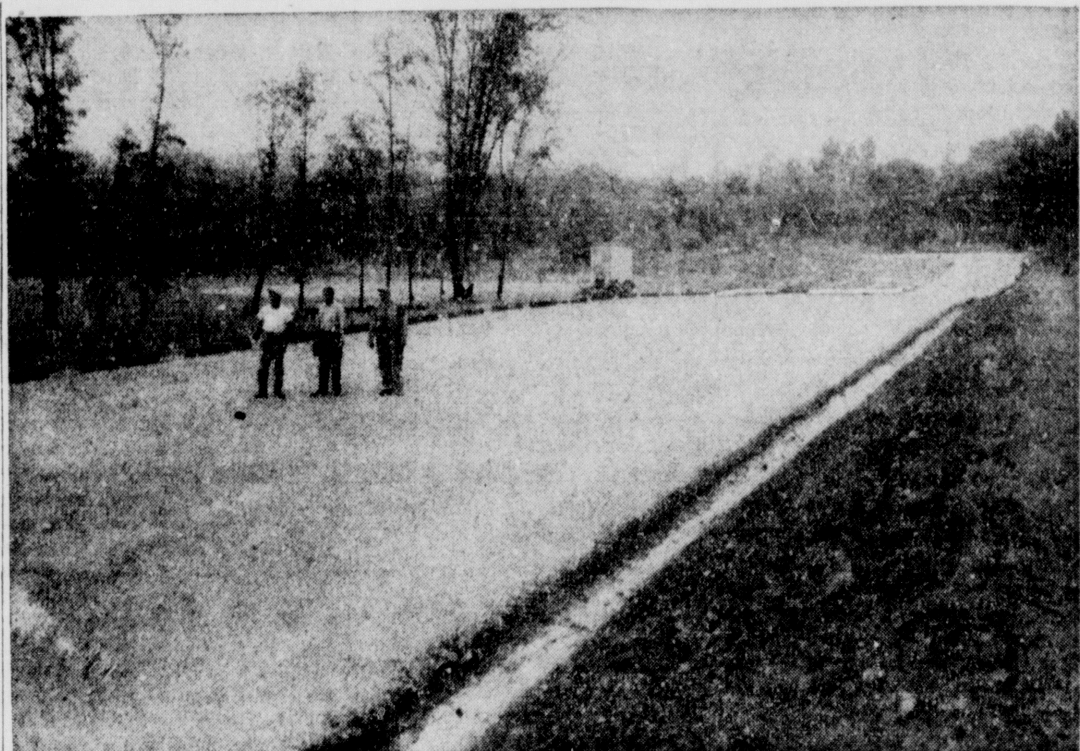

Grades one through six will begin classes at 8:55 a. m. and be dismissed at 3 p. m. Bus children in the latter grades will come to school on the second bus and return home on the first bus in the afternoon.

The bus schedule will be in effect for the entire year.

Registration for all unregistered new pupils entering the kindergarten or first grade will be held Thursday at 9 a. m. David A. Borrow, principal at Lincoln School, said.

Mrs. Mildred Ashbridge, school nurse, will be present at the registration. Parents are asked to bring their children's immunization records.

STREET COMPLETED AT MEMORIAL PARK—The roadway leading from the end of Superior St. to Memorial Park north of town has been completed and should be open by next week, according to C. S. Tomlinson, parks superintendent. Above is a picture of the new road which was built at a cost of $12,930. Work was started in July by Camp Service Co., which was awarded the contract by the Park Commission.

Fighting a last-ditch battle against integration, Houston has asked the state of Texas to invoke the ancient doctrine of interposition to prevent racial mixing in its public school classrooms.

City Council Will Act On 3 Measures

City Council will meet in special session at 5:30 tonight to act on emergency legislation providing funds for the adult school patrol and street lighting, and re-establishing the salary of the city engineer.

The adult school patrol had been set up for only half a year in the annual appropriation because of insufficient funds in the general fund. It was hoped that possibly the Salem School Board might assume the cost for the second half of the year. However, Council has since learned that the school board has no legal right to assume that expenditure.

The street lighting funds were required to continue maintenance and repair work in the department. That fund has been diminished by a renovation program in progress.

Re-establishment of the engineer's salary was necessitated by the city hiring John Ursu to replace Harry Loria, formerly consultant in the engineering department. Ursu will assume the job at a cost of $50 a month. Loria's salary was $130 a month.

Ursu is an employee of Theodore Dostoli, who is city engineer for Girard, Campbell, Lowellville and Struthers.

He is married and a licensed registered civil engineer having been graduated from Case Institute of Technology. He formerly was employed by the State Highway Department.

Negotiators Try to Prevent 20,000-Man Railroad Strike

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Negotiators make a last stab today—by apparently faint hope of success—at preventing a strike which will shut down the entire Pennsylvania Railroad.

More than 20,000 non-operating employees were prepared to strike the nation's largest railroad at one minute past midnight. The railroad notified most of its remaining 54,000 employees they will be furloughed so long as a strike might last.

Five-man negotiating committees from the railroad and the Transport Workers Union met until 1 a. m. today.

The railroad operates on 10,000 miles of tracks from New York and other East Coast cities to St. Louis. It already has laid off some employees because of a decline in freight business.

The TWU represents the bulk of those scheduled to strike. The System Federation Union represents the rest of the repairmen, maintenance men, car washers like the, and has been acting in unison with the TWU.

5 Salem Young People Injured

Two Autos Collide Following Blowout

Five Salem teenagers were injured when their car had a blowout on the Georgetown Rd., four and a half miles southwest of Salem, at 8:50 p. m. Tuesday and collided with an auto driven by another Salem teenager.

State highway patrolmen of the Lisbon post identified the injured as:

Theodore Thorne, 16, of 821 E. 3rd St., driver of the car which had the blowout, cuts of the face and left hip;

Gary Jeffries, 15, of 867 E. 4th St., cuts of the head;

Jean Carlos, 17, of 868 E. 4th St., brush burns of the elbows and knees;

Shirley Ehrhart, 17, of 837 E. 3rd St., brush burns of the back and neck;

Penny Hess, 17, of 1195 E. 4th St., cuts and brush burns of the back and head.

All were in Thorne's car. The Thorne youth was admitted to the Central Clinic and the Ehrhart and Hess girls to City Hospital. All are in fairly good condition. Miss Carlos and the Jeffries boy were treated and released.

Patrolmen said the car driven by Thorne and the other auto, operated by Charles Greenfield, 17, of 849 E. 3rd St., apparently were very close together at the time of the accident, with Thorne's car in front.

When the blowout occurred, they said, Thorne's car went into a ditch, flew up in the air, bounced around considerably and collided with Greenfield's.

Both drivers were cited to Juvenile Court, patrolmen said.

A Wellsville man, Herbert Means, 34, was treated at East Liverpool City Hospital shortly after 12:15 a. m. today when his car left the Camp Ground Rd., a mile north of Rt. 7, and went into a ditch.

Patrolmen said the accident occurred on a curve.

Means suffered cuts of the left ear and the forehead. He was cited for driving left of center.

Officials Say Defectors Took Cryptographic Data

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two missing employees of the National Security Agency, presumed to have defected to the Soviet Union, were reported today to have taken "valuable cryptographic information" with them.

Rep. John W. McCormack of Massachusetts, the House Democratic leader, said he had learned this from usually reliable sources, and declared that the loss of cryptographic information "is far from serious than any official has publicly admitted."

McCormack made the statements in a letter to Rep. Francis E. Walter (D-Pa.), chairman of the House Committee on Un-American Activities. He asked that the committee make an investigation of the case of Bernon F. Mitchell and William N. Martin who disappeared in June.

Mitchell, 31, Eureka, Calif., and Martin, 29, Ellensburg, Wash., had been employed since 1957 as mathematical analysts at the National Security Agency at nearby Ft. Meade, Md.

In late June, Mitchell and Martin, bachelors and close friends, advised agency officials they were going to visit their families. Nothing more has been heard from them directly, but their movements have been traced first to Mexico and then to Cuba.

Hoopes Firm Low In Bids on Municipal Lot

Offers to Complete Project In 40 Days At Cost of $8,192

Les Hoopes and Son of Salem submitted the low bid for construction work on the municipal parking lot on E. Pershing St., between Lundy and Penn Ave., it was revealed when bids were opened Tuesday by the Board of Control.

The firm offered a bid of $8,192, with completion time of 40 days as called for by the specifications, James Feiler, city service director and member of the Board of Control, reported.

The work will include excavation of 13,000 cubic yards of top soil and trenching for storm sewers.

Other bidders, their bids and completion times were Camp Service Co. of Salem, $8,754, 21 days; C.M. Luburgh of Zanesville, $10,960, 30 days and Howell and Son of Salem $11,173, 45 to 60 days.

Feiler said other work required to complete the parking lot includes laying of storm drains, construction of catch basins, setting of bases for meters, installation of meters, establishing a lot base, rolling the base and paving the lot with blacktop.

This work, he said, possibly may be done by the city if time permits. He said he hoped the job could be completed this year and declared that some of the work the city intends to do may be contracted if time becomes scarce.

Done At Lower Cost
Feiler noted that if the city does the work it will probably be done at lower cost.

Earlier this year the city issued a note for $90,000 to finance the parking lot. The note was issued in anticipation of the sale of a general obligation bond issue which will be retired through proceeds in the general fund.

A portion of the total cost of purchasing the real estate necessary to install the lot was underwritten by Salem Parking Inc., a private firm founded and operated by local downtown merchants.

4 Dead In Pennsylvania Plane Crash

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Two lumbermen stumbled across the wreckage of a light plane and four bodies in rough mountain country of Western Pennsylvania Tuesday.

The plane was identified as one that left Teterboro, N.J., Aug. 16, carrying four members of an Oklahoma City family.

They were Henry Griffing, 53; his wife, Josephine, about 54; their daughter, Linda, 20; and son, Philip, 24.

Police said the plane had struck the tallest tree on top of a ridge and crashed to the ground apparently bursting into flames.

Two employees of a Bucktown lumber company came upon the plane while surveying timberland in a densely wooded area of northern Somerset County.

The bodies were found in the burned cabin. Wreckage was scattered more than 30 feet. Only the tail section was intact.

The discovery ended a widespread two-week search by the Civil Air Patrol and numerous volunteers in parts of West Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania and Ohio.

Authorities said the plane, a Cessna 180 Skylark, left Teterboro bound for Oklahoma City about 11 a. m. Aug. 16. They said it probably crashed between 2 and 2 p. m. the same day.

The elder Griffing was president of Video Independent Theatres, Inc., which offered a $5,000 reward for locating the family.

The Salem Civil Air Patrol and other district units had been alerted to search for the craft when it was reported missing.

Classes Scheduled Next Wednesday

Enrollment In County Schools Set at 5,525

Columbiana County's five rural school districts will enroll approximately 5,525 students in 14 schools next Wednesday for the 1960-1961 school year, Supt. James L. McBride reports.

Last year's total enrollment was 5,447.

All districts plan teachers meetings Tuesday. The regular schedule of classes will commence Wednesday.

Beaver Local School District expects an enrollment of 2,150 pupils, the greatest of any district in the county system. The total is broken down as follows: 515, high school; 730, fifth through eighth grade at Beaver Public; 455, Calcutta; 130, Elkton; 180, Rogers; and 140, West Point.

United Local School will have 1,210 pupils; 315 in high school and 895 in grades one through eight.

South Local District expects a total of 1,050 students: 230, Salineville High School; 350, Salineville Grade School; 170, Highlandtown; 170, No. 16; and 140, Wayne. Students in each of these schools are from first through eighth grades.

Fairfield-Waterford School District will have 975 students: 215 in high school at Fairfield and 760 in kindergarten through eighth grade at Fairfield and Waterford schools. This district is erecting a new high school, and these two schools will house elementary students only after the high school is completed.

2 Local Men Indicted For Armed Robbery

Two Salem men were among 72 persons indicted Monday afternoon by the Mahoning County Grand Jury in Youngstown.

Indicted for armed robbery were Richard McLish, 21, of 585 Granite St., and Robert Hargreaves, 24, of 435 Ash St.

The pair were arrested here in May, McLish by Salem police and Perry Township Constable John Harman after a gunbattle at the Hargreaves home. Hargreaves was taken into custody by Mahoning County sheriff's deputies while he was hiding under a bed in a Rt. 45 home.

They were being sought by police in connection with the robbery of Lee Paul's Oil Co. at Berlin Center. They allegedly held up an attendant at the oil company and took some $220 plus other items from a showcase.

Both men are presently held in the Mahoning County jail.

Resolution of African States Jolts Lumumba

Congo Building Up Troop Strength for Katanga Invasion

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo — The conference of independent African states jolted Premier Patrice Lumumba today with a resolution calling for frank and loyal cooperation between the United Nations and the Congo.

Lumumba, who has described the United Nations as imperialist, harassed Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold, and even called for the withdrawal of the U. N. force, sat in silence as the resolution was read in the conference hall.

The conference, which brought together delegates of 13 African states, wound up as Lumumba's government built up troop strength in neighboring Kasai province, apparently for an invasion of rebellious Katanga.

Lumumba had won one of his main demands. The United Nations announced that the last Belgian combat troops have quit the Congo, leaving only a few hundred technical specialists to look after the big treaty bases at Kamina, in Katanga; and Kitona, on the Congo River.

The conference expressed regrets at the incidents, which have troubled relations between the Congo and the U. N.

The conference paid homage to the organization "for the work of peace it brings to the Congo." It praised U.N. for bringing about the withdrawal of Belgian troops and taking over the Kamina and Kitona bases.

The evacuation brought quick demands from Katanga's Premier Moise Tshombe that the U.N. turn control of Kamina over to him or he would block its runway with bulldozers, trucks and oil drums.

The United Nations wants the big base 360 miles northwest of Elisabethville neutralized and banned to all troops but those of

Storm Brings More Rain, Cools District

A thunderstorm which brought a half-inch of rain Tuesday afternoon came on the heels of an inch of rainfall the previous day.

Yesterday's storm caused interruptions of power service in scattered sections but no service damage was reported.

Fog was much in evidence early this morning, with overcast skies predicted for most of the day. The weatherman predicted that Thursday would be fair and warmer.

Most people were hoping that the advent of September tomorrow would bring an end to the recent muggy weather.

An Ohio Edison Co. spokesman said service was interrupted briefly yesterday in scattered sections of this district when line and transformer fuses blew out, but no other damage was caused to power facilities.

Streets and highways in Salem and surrounding municipalities and rural areas were strewn with silt. In the East Liverpool area, torrents of water washed away some berms and clogged sewers with debris. Dick Neill, county highway department superintendent, said.

Power was cut off for about 15 minutes in sections of East Palestine after a transformer was struck by lightning at 5 p. m. The storm, which began there at noon flooded some cellars and caused other damage.

Democrats Hurt Most By Dog-Days Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — Opposing party spokesmen agreed today the dog-days session of Congress now drawing to a close has been politically damaging to the Democrats.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said the session had demonstrated that the Democrats "could develop no cohesive party spirit."

"For that reason, he said Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, the party presidential nominee, failed to get passage of several bills he wanted and didn't make good on promises to introduce others.

"Kennedy has promised to carry the fight to the country," Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, assistant Democratic leader, said in a separate interview.

that the session "has hurt Congress as a whole, but has hurt the Democrats the most."

"From the President on down the Republicans have been repeating the argument hourly, on the hour, that the Democrats have a two-thirds majority in the Senate and should be able to get what they want," Mansfield said.

"That, of course, is a majority in numbers but not in unity. The President himself has the equivalent of that majority in his veto power. And he must take the responsibility for defeating some measures with veto threats."

Mansfield indicated he thinks President Eisenhower made some political gains by resubmitting his 21-point legislative program and demanding quick action on it which he didn't get.

Dirksen said there was no question in his mind that Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the GOP presidential nominee, had benefited politically in the session.

Dirksen said that because of a liberal-conservative split among the Democrats Kennedy abandoned plans to initiate new legislation.

Lana Turner to Turn to Rancher For 5th Marriage

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — A handsome rancher and horse breeder will be Lana Turner's fifth husband.

He is Fred May, a crewcut sportsman who once tried to slug a Hollywood columnist he said had insulted her.

The couple met Tuesday in Santa Ana, en route to the races at Del Mar, and obtained a marriage license. They wouldn't say when they will wed.

Lana gave her age as 39. May is a young-looking 43. It will be his second marriage. Lana has her second marriage.

May made such a success of a half-dozen enterprises, including an export-import business, that he was able to retire to ranching at 38. His two children by his first marriage live at his Chino, Calif., ranch.

Friends wondered if Lana, when wed to May, might be able to regain custody of her teen-age daughter, Cheryl.

It was during the furor over Cheryl's escape from a county-operated girl's school that May tried to swing on a Hollywood trade paper writer.

The column to which May objected criticized Miss Turner's upbringing of Cheryl, now 17. Cheryl was made a ward of Superior Court after she fatally stabbed her mother's hoodlum lover, John Stompanato, in 1958.

At the time of the stabbing, Miss Turner was divorced from her fourth husband, actor Lex Barker. She had been beaten and threatened by Stompanato and was arguing bitterly with him, in the bedroom of her Beverly Hills mansion, when the tall, slender girl stepped in and stabbed him with a kitchen knife. A coroner's jury ruled it was justifiable homicide.

Miss Turner was previously wed to millionaire Henry J. (Bob) Topping, to Cheryl's father, restaurateur Steve Crane, and to band leader Artie Shaw.

On the Bookshelves

New Books at the Salem Public Library

FICTION

"The Sands of Kalahari" by William Mulvihill. When a plane crashes on the African desert, five men and one woman try to keep alive in the sand and the sun and the heat of day and the cold of night. This is a swift and forceful story, but one that examines human nature closely also. It won the Putnam $10,000 award.

"Tomfool's Pike" by William Kendall Clarke. How Stephen Greene whom the town of Munson despised suddenly became its potential savior. Since he had made the ridiculous offer to move a big house over two miles in a spirit of bravado when he was more than ordinarily intoxicated, Stephen is in quite a dilemma when, sober, he is expected to move a whole town. The solution makes an intriguing story.

"The Inspector" by Jan de Hartog. A middle-aged Dutch inspector of police decides to rescue a young Jewish girl from the hands of an unscrupulous couple who plan to use her in their white-slave operations. Theirs is a weird and fascinating journey and it is told with the fine style for which Mr. de Hartog is justly famous.

Newly-received mysteries include the following: "Bar Sinister" by K.G. Ballard, an American movie star and her connection with a Spanish grandee who is murdered as he is writing his will. "Valley of Smugglers" by Arthur W. Upfield. An Inspector works alone in a wild and remote part of Australia. "Sleep with Slander by Dolores Hitchens. A private eye tries to find a child among a group of professional liars. "Road Block" by Hillary Waugh. Cops and robbers in a small New England city. "Verdict in Question" by Selwyn Jepson. Two policemen, both of whom are in love with the same girl, her irascible father, and she seems to be in league with the suspected murderer. England is the place and great is the confusion.

"The Yankee from Tennessee" by Noel B. Gerson. A fictional biography of Andrew Johnson. A controversial figure during his lifetime and for many years thereafter, Andrew Johnson is only now beginning to take his rightful place in history.

NON-FICTION

"Narvik" by Captain Donald MacIntyre. An account of the naval aspect of the Norwegian campaign of 1940 from the British viewpoint. The author's viewpoint is that Britain learned lessons from this unsuccessful campaign which served her and her allies very well later on in World War II. The day of the battleship has passed, but perhaps the great attraction they have for the individual is only increased thereby.

"Black Saturday" by Alexander McKee. The battleship "Royal Oak" lay inside the main base of the British base at Scapa Flow when four explosions shook her. She was down in less than ten minutes, and 800 men with her. This was only a few weeks after the beginning of World War II and German newspapers made much of their submarines' claimed success. This story goes fully into the event and also raises questions about what really occurred.

"Puerto Rico, Island of Promise" by Ruth Gruber. Profusely illustrated, this is one more sympathetic presentation of the Puerto Rican people who are high in hopes and tough in spirit although many of them still poor in worldly goods.

"America's National Monuments and Historic Sites" by E. John Long. A picture book in both color and black-and-white of a large number of points throughout the country. It is organized by region, and includes some material on Canada, Alaska, Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico as well as the more often considered areas.

"Policies and Practices in Higher Education" by Algo D. Henderson. This is a comprehensive treatment of the subject, and anyone who has been out of college for more than ten years, anyone who has a child in college or about to enter, or anyone engaged in education at any level should make it a "must" reading.

"Washington" by Michael Frome. Although this is a much shorter book than many about the nation's capital, there is much information. Some chapter headings may be indicative of the variety of subjects - Lost in circles, found on avenues; the Capitol, face and inner frame; The executive branch;

THE QUICK AND THE THIRSTY — His fastbeating wings almost invisible, a hovering hummingbird pokes his long, narrow beak into an outdoor bird bar set up in Merced, Calif. Charles Harris filled the bottle with sugar water.

A stroll in Georgetown; Culture in the capital; Children by ages and stages. Small maps at the beginning of chapters on specific areas are helpful.

"Frontiers of the sea" by Robert C. Cowen. A quotation from the preface of this title explains the book... "(To answer)" questions about the ocean and the atmosphere as a whole, how they interact under the sun and with the solid earth.... With skill and insight Mr. Cowen has shown how far we have come in answering them, how the questions are related to each other, and what we still need to know. A paragraph help man systematically to exploit the resources of the marine grab bag."

"Whale Ships and Whaling" by Albert Cook Church. The author has assembled all possible photographs of whaling ships and their various parts to make a history of the industry par excellence.

"Creative Selling" by Charles F. Lohse. This is a unique book on salesmanship, because it gives step-by-step instruction for increasing the effectiveness of selling by teaching creative thinking. Effective techniques to encourage creative thinking could be helpful to almost anyone.

"Joseph Conrad" by Jocelyn Baines. There have been many biographies of Conrad, but none could begin to be called definitive as this one can. It is also a criticism of Conrad's works, it aims to present all the important details of Conrad's life, and so to show the relation between the writer and his work.

One Creep At a Time

One of the oddest deals ever made is being tied up between New Jersey and eight passenger railroads that carry commuters of that state back and forth to New York City.

Beginning Sept. 1, the eight railroads will collect a state subsidy based on the daily total of New Jersey passengers they carry. As their end of the contract, the railroads guarantee existing schedules and rates for the life of the contract with the state—one year.

This is a rescue operation. New Jersey commuters are going to be rescued from a noneconomic plight in which they are unable, or at least unwilling, to pay what it costs to transport them to and from their jobs in a city so crowded its workers must live in "bedroom communities" many miles away.

RAILROADS serving New Jersey commuters are going to be rescued from a political plight in which their charges are regulated by government agencies that will not let them collect what they need to maintain service and will not let them discontinue service without going through enough red tape to exhaust their diminishing resources.

This problem was created by wholesale development of public highways that were exploited by the automobile industry and especially by the trucking industry, which drew away the railroads' revenue. It was worsened by public subsidies to the aviation industry, which skimmed off still more railroad revenue. Railroads continued to pay taxes on their rights of way and equipment. Truckers and airlines paid taxes only on equipment. Highways and airports were furnished by the public.

The alternative to realistic charges for all transportation—which could come about only if all regulations were removed, along with all subsidies, tax exemptions and government support—is ever-increasing public support and the regulation that goes with it.

IT IS SIGNIFICANT that New Jersey's highway commissioner will negotiate the contracts with the eight railroads. New Jersey is the only state that has given serious consideration to diverting toll road revenue into support for railroads whose service is demanded by New Jersey commuters at less than cost; a proposal to this effect was turned down in a statewide vote last November.

Socialism, like the fog, "creeps in on little cat feet." All its gambits are plausible. Everything seems for the best. Expediency is put above principle. The easy way out is the short way home—and the destination is always the same.

Enterprise is shifted from private business to public authority. Authoritarianism is given a handhold. Seizure would be all-out socialism. The handhold is state capitalism, which is the first creep toward socialism.

Cherchez Le Provocateur

In French police practice, as all readers of detective novels know, the essence of crime solution is to look for the woman—Cherchez la femme.

This rule is based on Gallic experience over the centuries. Man does not live by crime alone. He needs not only bread but companionship to while away the hours.

There now is a rule of equal logic. In solving the crime of violence in international affairs. It is "Cherchez le provocateur."

The provocateur is the agent schooled in the tactics of the Communist conspiracy who shows up on schedule in every place on earth where trouble is brewing. He—or she—knows precisely what to do to provoke restless, angry people into mob action.

Today, the provocateurs are scoring heavily in the unsettled affairs of the new republic of Congo. Earlier this summer, they had a field day in Tokyo.

THEY ARE BELIEVED to be setting up an outpost in Cuba, from which they can reach Latin American countries on overnight journeys.

They have smeared the streets of Italian and French cities with blood. In the '20s and '30s they plied their dark profession successfully in all the large cities of the United States. They could blow up a riot anywhere on a few days' notice.

They blew up a riot successfully a few months ago in San Francisco. They are always with us, although vigilant police work has reduced their effectiveness.

Even in the United States, where their mischievous tactics are as well known as the tactics of bona fide political agitators, there is no way to make sure they won't find enough converts to start trouble. In the Congo, where people have had no experience in government, the job is easy.

If they can force the United Nations out of that country, the way will be open for their Russian and Chinese masters, the chief conspirators of Communism, to carry out their subversion at leisure.

THIS IS a touch-and-go moment for the U.N.'s ability to fulfill its purpose of guaranteeing cooperative security.

In the Congo it has been given a peremptory challenge by the Communist conspiracy. Elsewhere, the challenge always has been a little less than peremptory. There was always a way to evade its full force.

This is why the secretary-general of the United Nations sees the Congo as the potential origin of war.

If the Communist Conspiracy can run the U.N. peacemakers and negotiators out of the new republic of Congo, it can run them out of any place on earth where it has a similar advantage of a backward population, confused leadership and antipathy against the old order.

"Why not jump from the frying pan into the fire?" it asks. And the answer, as likely as not, is the question, "Why not?"

By H. I. Phillips

Come On, Pirates!

Reports on politics, the Congo situation and other international disputes share only secondary interest among newspaper readers in Pittsburgh these days, and rightly so.

The Pirates baseball team appears headed for its first pennant victory in many a year. Right now the Bucs are six and one-half games out in front of Milwaukee and back on the winning streak after losing a couple games.

There are a few Pirates' fans scattered among the many disappointed Cleveland Indians followers in Salem and we join them in wishing the Pirates the best of luck as they head into the home stretch, with six important games on tap late next month with that other Indian tribe, the Milwaukee Braves.

Once Over

Robert W. Sarnoff of NBC suggested a few days back that commercial sponsorship of campaign airwave debates between presidential candidates would be okay, saying he did not believe they would be hurt by it.

Proposal seems kayoed. Fancy interrupting a campaign speech or argument with a sales pitch for a pill to get rid of gas pains!

If sponsored by coffee interests, wouldn't tea makers have right to equal time? How startling would it be if a spirited opinion on a major world problem were interrupted by: "Do you have time to brush between meals?"

And "Yes, the all-important thing is to see your dentist twice a year!"

It would do no good to Dick Nixon, regarded as somewhat cool, to have his rebuttal busted into by a commercial for an icebox or deep-freeze unit. If a flowery eulogy of hair tonic and importance of good head of hair to success barged into a Kennedy argument, would it not clearly be an unfair break for the Democrats?

Question: "Do you suffer from tired blood?" would sound embarrassing, in interrupting debate between two candidates for office calling for vigor.

Would it not ruin the debate if it were broken into every few minutes by "Yes, the great problem is this: Are you using the right detergent, the one that eliminates all dirt, grease and smudge instantly?"

Might not both aspirants to highest office in the land suffer deep chagrin if immediately after: "It is my hope that my voice is reaching every home in America on the matter of foreign policy," the huckster abruptly asked, "Do you suffer from bad breath?"

Sponsored debate looks sunk. But if it ever comes to pass, letting beer, cigarette, floor FRANKFURTERS, CAR POLISH AND C soups into debate between men seeking the presidency of United States, we will demand that no commercial be allowed except for tranquilizers.

BULGARIA DEPOSITED 1,100 pounds of attar of roses in a London bank as substitute for gold. Anything that improves the smell of world economic situation is presumably helpful. Value of our own dollar is down so low there are folks who fear Fort Knox may accept sweet spirits of goldenrod instead of gold.

New York fireman faces trial for taking Cuban vacation without usual department routine clearing a trip. There's a chance any fireman, hearing a Castro speech, could slide down pole, leap into boots an dtake off for Havana at once in belief there had been a second alarm.

Millburn, N. J., bank placed bowl of free nickels on counter with invitation to customers to help themselves if they needed nickel for parking space. Few did so. We knew the nickel had sunk in public esteem but we didn't think it had dropped that low. Maybe the bank customers figured the bank was simply dishing out their own money without a withdrawal slip.

Inside Labor By Victor Riesel

There was a moment when Walter Reuther fought until he was the last man in his group for the nomination of Dwight D. Eisenhower for the presidency on the Democratic ticket. That was in 1948.

Reuther had nothing personal against Harry S. Truman. The young Auto Union leader just didn't think Mr. Truman could win. Reuther believed Eisenhower could.

Reuther — and the other union chiefs who then telephoned Justice William O. Douglas with a plea to fight Truman — wanted an ally in the White House.

They got that ally. Harry Truman forgave and forgot. He even seized the steel mills for the strikers during his last year in office.

Then came eight years of Eisenhower labor-management neutrality. Labor learned that it could win a national strike only when the White House lifted that neutrality.

Today, Reuther, the most whirlwindish strategist, of them all, sees labor's last chance to wipe out that type of neutrality and win another HST-FD type of White House ally.

FUTHERMORE, Reuther sees this chance at the beginning of a decade in which post-war normalcy will bring the toughest showdowns between labor and management.

There you have the basic domestic paean.

Earlier this summer, Reuther put it tersely this way to his colleague, Emil Rieve, an AFL-CIO vice president, when Rieve asked him why he was so enthusiastic about John Kennedy:

"We've got to have a Democratic administration in the White House, Emil. We've been on the outside for eight years and we don't want more situations like the steel strike. We're going to have a lot of difficulty with management from now on."

Reuther is thinking of far more than his own union, though its contracts expire in just one year with the Big Three of the auto industry and he'll be swinging in a headline-making negotiations in less than six months.

EUTHER KNOWS that labor's political and social strength rests on its industrial strength. And without success on the labor-management front, labor's philosophical and ideological programs might as well be sealed under glass in the Smithsonian as a museum piece.

Thus it was Reuther, with an assist from the Steel Union chief, Dave McDonald, who soothed the bristling union men in Los Angeles after Lyndon Johnson's nomination.

It should be added that Reuther did this, too, because he had been working quietly with Johnson and Rayburn on the "Hill" and they were allies.

Thus it is Reuther who has taken on the toughest campaign schedule of any labor leader. He has already booked himself for over 50 major speeches beginning in early September.

He will be arranging considerable television time. His entire union is being organized as a national campaign machine for the duration.

His brother, Roy, already is deep in the heart of the Kennedy campaign organization.

THERE IS NOTHING melodramatic about this "last chance" theory. Just scan swiftly the presidential years since 1944. Then the labor politicians wanted, Henry Wallace as vice presidential candidate.

Many — and I was with two of them in the White House talking with FDR in October of that year — BELIEVED Mr. Roosevelt would not last six months. That would have made Wallace President.

But Mr. Truman got it. And did it again in '48.

In '32 and '36 the labor people endorsed and lost.

But that was to a global war hero. Now for the first time since labor built its national campaign machinery, it has been able to get the man it wants.

Now for the first time there is no Eisenhower opposing them. Now for the first time it is organization against organization. They're against Richard Nixon.

If they lost, they lose more than an ally. They lose the prestige and influence which spring from the ability to deliver.

Climax In the South

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Could States' Rights Stand Mean GOP Votes?

The political revolution in the South may reach its climax in this presidential campaign.

It was easy enough to attempt to explain the decision of Texas and four other southern states in the 1928 election as based on the so-called "religious issue" but when in 1952 and 1956 several states in the South again voted for the Republican presidential tickets, there was developed another alibi — the personal popularity of Dwight Eisenhower.

But what has been generally overlooked is that Mr. Eisenhower in his campaign speeches repeatedly touched on a sore spot in southern politics — the tendency of the Democratic party to veer away from states' rights. Mr. Nixon will be saying the same thing in his tour of the South.

Mr. Eisenhower's speeches in 1952 gave the distinct impression that he sided with the South on states' rights.

It is true that he hasn't since gone along with the south's viewpoint on "segregation," because he has felt that his sworn duty is to enforce the Constitution as the Supreme Court of the United States, rightly or wrongly, has construed it. But there is no doubt that in his heart Mr. Eisenhower feels — as Vice President Nixon does — that basically the issues are moral and social and that new laws or court orders will not alone bring a change of thinking or custom.

BUT THE SOUTH man contributed electoral votes to the Republican ticket this year for reasons wholly disconnected from the segregation-integration controversy.

Actually on this issue the two party platforms do not differ materially. What is significant is that the South is large part has been slowly coming to the conclusion that the main reason for remaining Democratic in the last 100 years is disappearing.

The Democratic party, which long was faithful to the states' rights doctrines of Thomas Jefferson, has been abandoning them in favor of the Madison and Hamilton doctrines of centralization of power in the federal government.

The Republican party in recent years, on the other hand, has taken a position in favor of states' rights more in line with southern thinking.

Indeed, again and again northern Republicans have voted in Congress along with southern Democrats in a coalition that seeks to preserve the rights of the states.

This means more from an economic and political standpoint to the southerners than does the so-called "civil rights" issue, important though it still is in local politics.

The practical obstacle against the rise of the Republican party in the South is that for generations the Democratic state and city organizations have been supreme.

Selection of a candidate in the primaries of the Democratic party has been equivalent to election because of the absence of organized Republican opposition.

In most instances in southern states no candidates for Congress or for state and local officers are nominated by the Republican party.

THIS MEANS that campaign funds flow from the National Democratic party to the local Democratic candidates.

That's why so many of the southern senators and representatives already have endorsed the Kennedy-Johnson ticket though they know this means that many voters in their own states will disregard perfunctory endorsements and vote Republican anyhow in the presidential election.

There has been talk of third party tickets for President or at least "independent electors" but all these plans are likely to be of little avail for practical reasons.

The Republican candidates for President and vice president are on the ballot and are well known. Many southerners, feeling that the utterances of the candidates are about the same on the "civil rights" issue, will turn to other issues.

Perhaps one of the most important of all is the right-to-work issue. Sen. Byrd, (D-Va.), for instance, said in a speech before the American Bar Association this week:

"I regard the right to work as I do the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. States have the right, the responsibility, and the duty to protect this fundamental freedom. This is my position and I shall fight for it. . . ."

"We have learned that the more government is centralized in federal bureaucracy at Washington, the more it is susceptible to the arrogant influence of labor leaders."

THE PLEDGES in the Democratic party platform to get rid of right-to-work laws and the endorsement of Sen. Kennedy, Democratic nominee, by the AFL-CIO which is fighting for the repeal of those laws may cost him more electoral votes in the South than he can gain on this issue in the West and North as an offset.

In other words, economic issues — conservatism versus radicalism, and decentralization versus centralization — are tending more and more to swing the electoral votes of the South away from their traditional support of the Democratic party in past national elections.

Too Many Carp, He Says

I saw a woman fisherman catch a 13-inch walleye recently at Guilford Lake but almost everyone fishes for carp because that seems to be the only thing left, besides 4, 5 and 6-inch perch, gills and crappies.

A Mrs. Pilmer from East Canton got 18 carp in about 5 and one-half hours the other day, all from one and one-half to 3 and 4 pounds. Like almost everyone else she became disgusted fishing for anything else but carp at Guilford.

My own idea is that the State should put a limit on the length and amount of bass to be taken. I become disgusted when I see people take 6, 7 or 8-inch bass home. I wouldn't take one under 11 inches.

I'm not so sure there are many muskies left in Guilford because the place is polluted with carp.

taxpayers' money. And what justification exists for a West Branch administrative office at Beloit. A rented trailer would have cost far less.

And, why are additional duties being placed upon our good Knox Principal John Pickens who now must spend part of his time away from Knox School.

As a member of the West Branch District, I am concerned that the board in its desire to break with Sebring, has abandoned its fundamental duty and responsibility to the school children. The board's defense is that Sebring defeated the school bond issue three times.

Sebring is not now responsible for what is occurring.

I think Sebring was wise in getting out from under it all.

The Doctor Says

By Dr. NORMAN VINCENT PEALE
Cough Mechanism Is Necessary

I'd suggest you consider what you are doing before you go shopping for a "cough medicine."

The cough mechanism wasn't set up just to annoy you. It has a definite and useful purpose. And that purpose is to keep your airway clear. To free it of anything that might serve to block the flow of air into your lungs or out of them.

Dr. H. T. Hyman

Let me give some examples of how coughing acts to your advantage:

You're at table and something you've tried to swallow has "gone down the wrong way." That is to say, entered your airway instead of your gullet (esophagus).

Or you've caught cold and infected nasal secretion that trickled down the back of your throat has been drawn into the airway when you took a deep breath in preparation for a sneeze.

IN EACH OF these examples, you've gotten something in your airway that doesn't belong there. If what you tried to swallow was permitted to lodge there, it might permanently obstruct the blocked portion of the passageway in which it was stuck.

And if the infected nasal secretion remained in the bronchus into which it was drawn, it might well introduce infecting bugs into areas they couldn't otherwise have reached.

Now let's consider other ways in which the cough mechanism works to your advantage.

You have a deep bronchitis or even a pneumonia (by which is meant that the infection has gotten clear down to the tiny air sacs through which oxygen must pass to get into your circulating blood stream.)

AS A RESULT of the infectious process, pus has accumulated in your bronchial tubes or your air sacs.

You take a deep breath in and, if you're lucky, you cough it up. If you're not lucky, it remains as a plug, like an adhesive plaster dressing over a boil that ought to be drained.

For present purposes, just one more set of examples:

Ordinarily the delicate lining membrane of the airway is kept sweet and moist by a mucus secretion that protects it just as saliva protects the lining membranes of your mouth. When the air you breathe has a low moisture content, the secretion crusts.

Then the underlying membrane gets irritated and cracked just as your lips do under similar circumstances. You respond with a cough that should serve to inform you that your membranes need watering. Not the application of lipstick. Or a swallow of cough medicine.

OR TAKE THE opposite situation. Your membranes react with a protective bath of mucus to an increased moisture content of the atmospheric air or to irritants. Just as you eye water when you enter a smoke-filled room.

Well, the tears can run down your cheeks. But the bronchial mucus has to be expelled by the cough mechanism. What's the sensible thing to do? Shop for a "cough medicine?" Or do something to dry the air?

Remove the irritant? Or remove yourself to where the moisture content of the air is more nearly normal and not fouled with contaminants?

FALL DOS

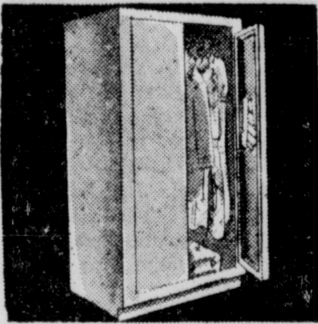

Each season calls for something new as far as fashion forecasts are concerned. It will take one of the current hairdos to blend with the new trend in clothes. First of all your hair must be restored to top condition after a season of surf and sun. Hair conditioning will do wonders for it. Now you are ready to have a special coiff adapted for you alone.

With the highlights restored to your hair, you are ready for your very own "do." It must be created with you in mind. Make an early appointment with us.

Mr., Mrs. Lee B. Mellott Return From Honeymoon Trip

Having returned from a honeymoon trip through the northeastern states, Mr. and Mrs. Lee B. Mellott are at home to their friends at 312 W. 3rd St.

The bride is the former Lela Mae Karns, daughter of Mrs. Ralph Cloutier of W. 3rd St. and Wayne Karns. Mr. Mellott is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Mellott of Benton Road.

Officiating at their double ring wedding ceremony in the First Methodist Church Aug. 6 was the Rev. Lionel Brayton, exchange pastor from England. Gladioli and palms enhanced the altar that was lighted with tapers in twin seven-branch candelabra.

Mrs. Chris Perrott sang "I Love You Truly," "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Floyd Craig was organist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a silk organza ballerina-length dress with bouffant skirt, Chantilly lace yolk and brief sleeves. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a pearl studded crown. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Frank Lanterman, the brides sister, was matron of honor. Her dress was designed with a yellow taffeta bodice and cummerbund and a white organza skirt. She wore a matching headpiece trimmed with sequins and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow roses, white lilies and white chrysanthemums.

Bridesmaids were Miss Kathy Messenger and Miss Barbara French. They wore identical dresses of green chiffon with matching hats and carried colonial bouquets of pink roses, white lilies and white chrysanthemums.

Miss Debra Snay, a niece of the bride, was dressed in pink. She wore a spray of pink roses as a headpiece and carried a basket of flowers.

Dick Kasso of Damascus, a cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. James Johnson of Salem and

Mrs. Lee B. Mellott

Gaylen Weingart of Struthers ushered.

A reception was held in the United Steel Workers Hall. Mrs. Curtis Shepard, Mrs. Edward Barnes and Miss Sara Christopher served. Mrs. Sam Stambaugh presided at the guest book.

The bride, who attended Salem High School, is a student at the Ohio School of Beauty Culture in Youngstown.

Her husband, a graduate of Goshen High School, attended Mount Union College and is now manager of Pic Way Shoe Store in Cleveland.

The Social Notebook

EIGHT MEMBERS of the Salem Garden Club will attend the 33rd annual meeting of the Garden Club of Ohio, Inc., Sept. 27 and 28 in Dayton.

They are: Mrs. George F. Jones, Mrs. A. A. Parker and Mrs. R. L. Davis, members of the State Board; Mrs. R. K. Zimmerman, president of the local club; and Mrs. F. J. Schmid, Mrs. James A. Cross, Mrs. V. J. Bober and Mrs. V. R. Horning.

The regular meeting of the Salem club will be held Sept. 22 instead of Sept. 26, and will feature a workshop starting at 10 a.m. at the Ruth Smucker House.

THE FIRST ANNUAL reunion of the Walton cousins and their families was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Walton of Chestnut Grove Road, with 66 in attendance.

A basket dinner was enjoyed, after which games and visiting were the diversion.

Mr. and Mrs. Galen Weaver of Chicago, Ill., served as president and secretary, respectively.

Relatives were in attendance from Winona, Hanoverton, Salem and Chicago.

Officers for 1961 are: President, Lawrence C. Walton; vice president, Malvern Walton; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Galen Weaver; and historian, John R. Walton.

Mr. and Mrs. Walton will be hosts at the second reunion to be held Aug. 27, 1961.

WEST SIDE Community Club members were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gray of Damascus Road recently. Mrs. Matilda Miller was associate hostess.

The 16 members present welcomed Mr. and Mrs. Warren Brown, Mrs. Mildred Schuster and Mrs. Walter Gray as guests.

Lebart Barber conducted the business session, after which games of "500" were enjoyed. Prizes were won by Mrs. Harry Thomas, Mrs. Alta Oertel, Robert Mayhew and Edwad Ryser.

Lunch was served by the hostesses. The Sept. 29 meeting will be in the Mayhew home on E. 3rd St.

OUTDOOR COOKERY will be the project for the first meeting this season of the Goshen Home Demonstration Group Sept. 9 at 10:30 a.m. in Goshen Grange Hall. Everything except table service will be furnished.

Reservations necessary for this type of meeting may be made by Tuesday with Mrs. Richard Burton at ED 2-4843, Mrs. Harry Camp of North Benton, LU 4-2758, or Mrs. Tom Richards of Damascus, JE 7-4227.

THE SCARRY REUNION will be held at Woodland Lake Park, Homeworth, Sunday, with a basket dinner at 12:30 p.m.

FORMER CLASSMATES of Miss Shirley Brautigam gathered at the Richard Laughlin home on N. Union Ave. Monday evening to shower her with miscellaneous wedding gifts. The hostesses, Mrs. Laughlin and Mrs. George Roher, are members of the wedding party.

Miss Brautigam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester M. Brautigam of 910 N. Ellsworth Ave., will become the bride of Glenn R. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Smith of Leetonia, Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in the First Methodist Church. Music will begin at 7 p.m., with the reception to follow in the social room.

Twenty-one guests attended the party, with the mothers of the couple and the bride's aunt, Mrs. William Watkins of Salem, as special guests.

Game prizes were shared by Miss Joan Schuller, Mrs. Thomas Ehrhart and Mrs. Walter Wisler. The gift table was decorated in blue and white and centered with a bouquet of pink dahlias and ivy. The refreshment table featured a cake decorated in pink, blue and white.

Mrs. Kenneth Gumbel

Hawk-Gumbel Nuptials Held In East Palestine Church

Miss Lynda Jane Hawk carried an Eastern Star Bible topped with lace holding a white orchid and with satin streamers tied in lovers knots and stephanotis for her marriage to Kenneth Earl Gumbel Saturday evening in the Grace Lutheran Church in East Palestine.

The Rev. Carl F. Duwe, pastor, officiated for the double-ring candlelight ceremony before an altar setting of white mums and daisies, ferns and seven-branch candelabra.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Hawk of 424 W. North Ave., East Palestine, and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Otto Gumbel of Rogers RD 1.

Mrs. Margaret Walker presented traditional organ music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown made by her mother of white embroidered organza over taffeta of ballerina-length with a scalloped hem line to the bouffant skirt. The long pointed waist featured a scalloped V neckline and short sleeves.

Held by a seed pearl tiara, her short veil of illusion was studded with pearls. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Gordon Duwe of Euclid was her sister's matron of honor and she wore a mint green dotted nylon over green taffeta dress of similar style to that of the bride, and her head piece was of scalloped illusion veil on a matching Dior bow. She carried a white basket of white and yellow daisies and yellow rose buds.

The bridesmaids, Miss Mary Ann Hartford of East Palestine, a cousin of the bride, and Miss Mary Belle Early of Cannelton, Pa., were attired in yellow dotted nylon over yellow taffeta with identical headpieces to the matron of honor, and they carried white baskets of yellow daisies and fern. All the attendants wore silver link bracelets holding a bridesmaid charm, gifts from the bride.

Howard Gumbel of Rogers was his brother's best man, and ushers were Thomas Gumbel of Rogers, another brother, and David Hawk of East Palestine, brother of the bride.

The mother of the bride chose a tan polished cotton embroidered in tan and turquoise, a feather hat and used autumn brown accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue crepe with white trim and accessories. Both complemented their outfits with corsages of yellow rose buds.

2 Emmanuel Circles Hold Meetings

Two circles of Women of Emmanuel Lutheran Church met recently for devotional programs and business sessions.

Twelve members of the Ruth Circle gathered in the home of Mrs. Dan Schmidt for a covered dinner. Mrs. Andrew Gottschling was co-hostess.

Mrs. Carl Kaiser, devotional chairman, used the topic, "Mark," and all members participated in the Bible study.

Mrs. Elwood Hammel had charge of the program, "Capacity to Love," which she illustrated with musical selections.

The business session was conducted by Mrs. Carl Kaiser. Mrs. Joe Gross and Mrs. Simon Wagner were in charge of Christian Service in August. Mrs. Kaiser will be chairman of the Luther League and Junior Lutheran project in September and October.

Mrs. Joe Gross will have the Oct. 19 meeting in her home, with Mrs. Rudy Schuster as co-hostess.

Martha Circle met at the home of Mrs. Michael Herman. Mrs. Rudy Bodendorf assisted. In attendance were 11 members and a guest, Mrs. Anna Unth.

Mrs. Albert Linder was acting secretary, and Mrs. Walter Linder was in charge of devotions taken from the Book of St. Mark.

Alton Fenton also reviewed chapters from Mark and read "Jewish Jewels," taken from the "Outlook" magazine.

"If Jesus Came to Your House" was read by Mrs. Vincent Moore.

61 Persons Attend Reunion Of High School Class of '30

Sixty-one former members and guests of Salem High School Class of 1930, held a reunion Saturday night at the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Dinner was served at tables decorated with cerise and white, the class colors, featuring silver bowls of asters and candles in crystal holders.

Olin Muntz gave the invocation, and Glenn Whinnery, class president, welcomed the group and introduced the masters of ceremonies, Paul Baisley and Myron Whinnery.

Carol, Robert and George Ehrhart entertained with pantomimes, and Thelma Stewart presented a humorous skit.

Rosina Schell read the prophecy from the 1930 Quaker Annual and called the roll. Members responding introduced their guests. Letters and telegrams from absent members were read.

Francis Himmelsbach awarded attendance prizes to Mrs. Delbert Windle, and Harold Bradley, while special prizes went to John Fithian, Delbert Windle, Arline Davis Leibhart, Carroll Mohr and Paul Baisley.

George Schmid conducted a memorial service for the five deceased members, Mary Taylor Schmid, Clara Mae Williams, Marie Fisher, Warren Todd and Clifford Greensien.

Colored movies of the reunion held five years ago were shown. Favors were "The Quaker Echo" booklets in white, silver and cerise. They contained the names and addresses of the 111 classmembers and a short personal history of each.

Laura Mae Hovermale Whinnery closed the program with an original poem about what the members are now doing.

The planning committee, comprised of Miss Schell, Paul and Margaret Brobender Baisley, Mr. Himmelsbach, Myron Whinnery, Mr. Schmid, Mary Frances Ressler Breit, Dorothy Dole Chalfant and Charles Vincent, presented Mrs. Whinnery, their chairman, with a corsage.

Out of state members in attendance included Kenneth Culler from Connecticut, Lois Greenisen Cox from Nebraska, Edward Irey, Newell Whitehill, Sam Krauss, Emily Bahmiller Henning and John Terry, all from Pennsylvania; Helen Walton Weaver from Illinois and Carroll Mohr from Florida.

Former Salem Girl Wed In Minneapolis

Miss Loreta Jean Harroff, a former Salem resident, became the bride of Dennis Charles Knapp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Knapp of Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 6, at Our Redeemer Lutheran Church, Minneapolis.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Davis of Shakopee, Minn.

Officiating clergyman was the Rev. Vernon J. Bittner. Setting for the double-ring ceremony was an altar lighted by tapers in candelabra and enhanced by an arrangement of white gladioli and carnations.

Miss Carolyn Kropiska of Shakopee was maid of honor, and Thomas Flanke was best man.

After a honeymoon trip to Northern Minnesota, the couple will their home in Minneapolis.

The bride is a niece of Mrs. William Allison of W. Pershing St.

Hanoverton

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Loudon were hosts at their home when the 85th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Loudon's mother, Mrs. Dora Davis of Minerva, was observed.

Guests came from Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., Wellington, West Lafayette, Canton, Minerva, East Liverpool, Wellsville, Robertsville and Hanoverton.

Thirty-one were in attendance for the annual Winder reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reeder of Hanoverton.

Newly elected officers are Mrs. Evelyn Winder, president; Miss Marilyn Cahoon, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Dorothy Smith recording secretary and treasurer.

Families of Hanover Township Ruritan Club members picnicked at the Legion Hall Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Mills returned home recently after a week's trip through several southern states.

Mrs. Louise Stepanic and Mrs. Mildred McCombs visited Mrs. Joan McClelland at Salineville Tuesday.

Mrs. Dora Marietta returned home recently after a visit in the home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Froelich of Canton.

Miss Dorothy Hively of Salem was a Wednesday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Blythe.

Wednesday callers in the A. J. Loudon home were Clair Loudon and John Kesig of Akron and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Arthur of Hartsville.

Mrs. Helen Pilmer of Lisbon and Mrs. Jennie Bower of Mokena, Ill., visited in town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollo Long of Sun Valley, Calif., called on the latter's aunt, Mrs. Dora Marietta, Thursday.

Toasted Sandwich

Ingredients: 8 slices bread, ¼ cup medium-grated cheddar cheese (packed down), 3 tablespoons mayonnaise-type salad dressing, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, 1 can (3½ ounces) sardines (drained).

Method: Toast bread on one side only under broiler.

Mix ½ cup cheese with mayonnaise and mustard; spread on untoasted sides of bread; cover edges.

Cover cheese mixture with tomato and sardines. Sprinkle with remaining ¼ cup cheese. Broil until hot through. Makes 4 servings—2 slices per portion.

Columbiana Schedules Street Fair Sept. 8-10

COLUMBIANA — One week from tonight the South Main St. business district will be transformed into a midway for the 74th annual Street Fair, sponsored by American Legion Post 290.

The fair will run Thursday through Saturday, Sept. 8-10, with Wednesday night reserved for setting up the amusement rides, exhibits and concessions. Degge Amusements of Indiana will supply the rides for the third year.

Harry Lundgren, fair secretary, said more exhibits than ever are scheduled for the merchants tent, ranging from flower displays to boats, from political booths to an organ display.

Columbiana County mobile chest X-ray unit will be on hand and an Ohio Department of Natural Resources exhibit will be shown.

Other traditional concessions along the midway will be the Jaycee "Bozo" stand, the Boy Scout basketball throw, the Legion refreshment tent and others from out of town.

Albert Hayes, post commander and fair manager, said three band concerts have been set up for the bandstand, which will be located next to the Plaza parking lot. The New Waterford Rube Band will play Thursday night, Sept. 8, the Quaker City American Legion Band of Salem on Friday night, and the Columbiana High School band on Saturday night.

PATROLMAN ANTHONY ROSS of the Youngstown police department was guest speaker for the Rotary Club meeting Monday night at Valley Golf Club.

Introduced by Mayor E. L. Calvin, program chairman, he discussed principal causes of traffic accidents, illustrated his talk with blackboard diagrams, and distributed booklets containing Mahoning County motor vehicle laws. Columbiana Police Chief William McGuckin was a guest of Mayor Calvin.

Five Kiwanis members from Lisbon visited the local Kiwanis Club at its meeting Monday night at Firesone Park. They were Kenneth Hiscox, Wid Wright, Courtney Pennell, D. Dale Mason and Ed Ward.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Pepple and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pepple attended the State Fair at Columbus.

Mrs. Jennie Fry and sister-in-law Daisy Fry, left recently for several weeks stay at Kane, Pa.

Weekend guests in the Emery Metz home were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Metz and Mrs. Roy Vandegrif and son David of Cincinnati and Mr. Mason Vadegrif of Alliance.

KENNETH BELL has received word that he has been appointed one of the delegates to the State Grange convention to be held in Columbus in October.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Fisher and Clyde Hiner of Bradenton, Fla., have arrived here for several weeks visit with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Irons attended the regional gladioli show held in New Castle, Pa., over the weekend. Mrs. Irons entered 16 specimens and won 9 blue ribbons, 5 red ribbons and one white ribbon, in the novice class.

OPEN HOUSE will be held on Thursday evening at 6:30 when the Midway Grange holds its regular meeting. A coverdish dinner will be held in honor of Clyde Temple and Earl Halverson when they will receive 50-year pins as grange members. Guests are to bring a coverdish and table service.

Charles Donbar will celebrate his 88th birthday Thursday. His address is S. Vine St.

CHOIR TO REHEARSE
The Senior Choir of Emmanuel Lutheran Church will resume rehearsals Sept. 8 at 7:30 p.m. at the church.

U.S.-Australian Living Conditions Compared

Robert Jolly of Spring Vale, Victoria, Australia, compared living conditions in his country with life in the United States when he spoke to the Salem Rotary Club at their luncheon Tuesday.

Jolly, a student studying at Oklahoma State Tech in Okmulgee, Okla., on a scholarship provided by the Okmulgee Rotary Club, said that although Australia has fewer luxury items than the U.S., it also has less poverty.

Several people from other countries attended the meeting as the guests of Walter Everett of the Deming Co.

A group of about 40 Rotarians attended the Kenley Players production of "Can-Can" Tuesday night in Warren.

Deaths, Funerals

Mrs. John Myers

Mrs. Patricia May Myers, 23, of RD 3, Canfield, died at 7:15 p.m. Tuesday at the Central Clinic following childbirth. Her infant son was stillborn at 9:26 p.m. Monday. Her husband, John, is among the survivors.

Arrangements are pending at the Williams Funeral Home in Canfield.

Congo

The U.N. Tshombe, however, fears that U.N. forces will not prevent Lumumba's invaders from landing at the base and using it as the springboard for their campaign to establish Lumumba's authority in the province.

Lumumba returned to Leopoldville after a provincial tour. There was no indication whether, with the last Belgian combat troops gone, he would revive his earlier demands that the U.N. force also leave the country.

Showing he had taken to heart the counsel of leftist advisers, the Congo premier announced he had ordered a "profound reform of the ancient structure" of society in the province. Territories formerly ruled by tribal chiefs would now become rural communities, he said. He also told of a decision to create peasant co-operatives to "mobilize all the forces of the country for a vast economic and social program."

Seven Approved by Conservation Board

LISBON—The board of supervisors of the Columbiana County Soil Conservation District Tuesday approved seven co-operators in the county program. Their farms have a combined total of 817 acres.

The following farmers were added:

Ralph Westover of Lisbon, 80 acres in Elkrun Township; T. L. Sauerwine of Lisbon, 65 in Center Township; Charles Elder of Salem, 150 in Butler Township; R. L. Hall of Columbiana, 200 in Wayne Township; Herbert Heck and James Moorehead, both of Columbiana, 107 in Elkrun Township; Norman Shaw of Leetonia, 66 in Salem Township; and Ronald Hofmeister of Haverton, 149 in Hanover Township.

East Palestine to Let Gasoline Contract

EAST PALESTINE —Low bidder for the city gasoline contract was the Sinclair Refining Co., an agency operated by Baird Stewart, which offered a price of 22.9 cents per gallon, delivered, the Board of Control announced today.

The bid was for 12,000 gallons of gas to be used for city vehicles. Other bidders were the East Palestine Oil and Gas Company, 25.8 cents per gallon, and the Standard Oil Co., 24.1 cents.

The board, comprised of Mayor Robert Harding and Service Director George McGuckin, was to award the contract today.

Labor Day Deaths Estimated at 460

CHICAGO (AP)—Traffic accidents during the long Labor Day weekend may kill 460 persons, the National Safety Council estimates.

That figure would be one short of the record set in 1951 for a Labor Day holiday period. The holiday starts at 6 p.m. Friday and ends at midnight Monday.

The council said nearly all of the nation's motor vehicles will be on the highways some time during the 72-hour holiday.

QUALIFIES AS AUCTIONEER

LISBON—Homer K. Ewing of North Georgetown qualified as an auctioneer Tuesday before Common Pleas Judge Raymond S. Buzzard by posting a $1,000 security bond and paying the $5 yearly fee.

PRESIDENT DIES

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Funeral services will be held Thursday for Arthur P. Rickard, 75, president of the Cleveland Engraving Co., Inc., and past-president of the Central States Photoengravers Association. He died Monday in Aultman Hospital.

A native of Alliance, he graduated there in 1907 from Mount Union College, and three years ago received the alumnus citation at the 50th anniversary of his class.

THEFT IS REPORTED

Mrs. Frederick J. Windon, 612 Ohio Ave., reported to police that a toy truck valued at $10 was stolen from the sidewalk in front of her home Monday. It was colored yellow, red and blue.

OHIO FIVE-DAY FORECAST

Temperatures will average 6-10 degrees above normal. Normal high 80 north to 82 south, normal low 69 - 70. Little temperature change throughout period. Rainfall will total less than 1-inch in scattered showers about Monday.

N.Y. 'Shower' Turns Into Nightmare

NEW YORK (AP) — A sudden summer storm drenched the New York metropolitan area Tuesday and turned the evening rush hours into a nightlong nightmare.

Brief but violent downpours ushered in by thunder and lightning raked the region from Connecticut to New Jersey.

Flash floods sent water pouring into subway stations, inundated expressways with water and mud and tied traffic in tortured knots clogging streets from the East River halfway across Long Island.

An estimated 100,000 homeward-bound New Yorkers were stranded. At least 20,000 subway riders were trapped in broiling heat as more than a dozen trains ground to a halt in steaming tunnels. Some 150 persons on a stalled train under the East River suffered heat exhaustion.

The storm hit in Connecticut, struck suburban Westchester and Rockland counties in New York and parts of northern New Jersey. In New York City, heavy rains fell in Manhattan, Brooklyn and Queens. But Queens and Long Island's Nassau County appeared hardest hit.

At least 18 fires were touched off in Nassau and burned several homes. Power failures left nearly 19,000 homes along the North Shore without electricity.

A power blackout affecting 23,000 customers in Queens lasted up to three hours.

Queens reported two deaths. A boy drowned when he fell into a manhole that had been opened as an emergency drain, and a man drowned in the flooded cellar of an apartment building.

Girl Hit By Auto During Rainstorm

A 15-year-old Salem girl was treated at the Central Clinic Tuesday for minor injuries suffered when she was struck by a car during yesterday afternoon's rainstorm.

Police said the girl, Donna Elwonger of 426 S. Broadway, was crossing S. Broadway, 350 feet north of Franklin Ave., when she was hit by a car driven by Clarence L. Stoffer, 32, of 767 W. State St. Police said the girl ran from between two parked cars into the path of Stoffer's car.

Stoffer took the girl to the clinic. Her injuries included brush burns of the right knee.

Woman Astronaut Predicts 1961 Flights

PITTSBURGH (AP) — America's first woman astronaut believes this country will send manned flights into space by the fall of 1961.

Jerrie Cobb, 29, said Tuesday practice shots to the fringe of space will be followed by orbital flights around the earth.

A test pilot for the Rockwell-Standard Corp. of nearby Coraopolis, Miss Cobb was here to confer with company officials and held a news conference.

Two Area Persons Hurt In Accidents

Two area residents are confined to the local hospitals following miscellaneous accidents Tuesday.

Mrs. William Scullion, 62, of 445 E. 7th St. is reported in good condition at the Central Clinic where she was admitted for treatment of a right knee injury sustained in a fall at her home.

In good condition at City Hospital is Harry Witmer, 25, of RD 1, Columbiana. He suffered a laceration of the right leg when struck by a saw while sawing lumber.

'Good Ol' Mel' Saga Ends In Fun Trip to California

PEORIA, Ill. (AP) — Melvin Miller, a quiet, home-loving man, flies west today, straight into the welcoming arms of what he thinks is the wackiest bunch of Marines in the Corps.

Miller, 40, a tractor factory foreman, is the puzzled, but willing, victim of a practical joke that has assumed gigantic proportions. It started a year ago in a Marine hangout called the Sandpiper Bar in Laguna Beach, Calif.

Capt. Joe Gestson, now a major, was at the Sandpiper one night and mislaid his car. A buddy suggested "try Peoria" and he did. Pulling a name out of the air, he asked the telephone operator to get him Melvin Miller in Peoria.

Good ol' Mel, as he's known now, answered the phone and—well, today he's going to California, all expenses paid by Maj. Gestson and scores of his buddies who in Marine hangouts the world over learned the saga of good ol' Mel in Peoria.

But Mel is keeping both feet on the ground.

Lunch with actress Jayne Mansfield?

"What's so special about that?" he asked. "If I was home I'd have lunch with my wife."

So, Melvin Miller, an elder in his church and who believes in eight to four at the shop and then home, will board an airliner carrying a key to Peoria and a miniature tractor for Laguna Beach's mayor.

A motorcade and band will meet him at Los Angeles International Airport. His busy program calls for civic dinners, a visit to a race track for the "Melvin Miller Stakes," a luncheon with Miss Mansfield, a tour of Los Angeles, bullfights in Tijuana, Mexico, and an appearance in a television show.

The windup of a hectic week next Tuesday calls for Mel to attend a full-dress review of Marines at El Toro Marine Air Station and then to the Los Angeles Coliseum where he'll throw out the first ball for the Dodgers-San Francisco baseball game.

Warren's High Sewer Rate Held Inadequate

WARREN — Gordon Reiss of Seasongood and Mayor of Cincinnati, fiscal agents to the city of Warren on the multi-million dollar sewage treatment project, said yesterday the city was not now able to complete the project at its present sewer rental fee.

Reiss told councilmen and city officials that phase B (Red Run diversion conduit) and phase C (Mahoning interceptor sewers) could be financed by the city based on its present situation, but that phase D (northwest interceptor sewer) could not be built without additional funds.

The present sewer rental fee is 100 per cent of the water charge for residents within the city and 150 per cent for those living outside.

Mayor Walter Pestrak, who called the meeting, said he had been advised by the Ohio water pollution control board that it expected the city to build all three phases of the project.

The state agency recently granted the city an extension until Sept. 15 of its permit to dump raw sewage into the Mahoning River and Mosquito Creek.

ATTORNEY DIES

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—L. Darrel Ake, 45, an attorney who served as president of the former William McKinley School of Law here 10 years, died Tuesday following a heart attack. Services will be held at 3 p.m. Thursday at the Arnold Funeral Home.

Castro Accuses U.S. Of Shooting Scheme

HAVANA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro accused agents of the United States of plotting to shoot down Foreign Minister Raul Roa on his way home from the San Jose conference.

Castro's charge Tuesday night was the only new note in a day of marathon speech-making touched off by the Western Hemisphere foreign ministers' condemnation of Soviet and Chinese Communist penetration of Latin America via Cuba.

The presidential palace said Roa and the rest of the Cuban delegation to the San Jose conference came home ahead of schedule in a chartered Costa Rican airliner because "counter-revolutionary mercenaries" planned to intercept the delegation's special plane and force it down.

The Costa Rican director of civil aviation said in San Jose that he had held up the delegation's own plane while his office checked the possibility it might have been sabotaged. The plane was cleared in the late afternoon and flew home with 15 Cuban newsmen who had been covering the conference.

RADIO COMMUNICATIONS -

The Salem Trade Extension is offering a basic course in one of the most promising of all the technical trades - RADIO COMMUNICATIONS.

In recent years the electronics industry has suffered a serious shortage of trained technicians in this ever increasing field. New jobs are being created daily with the expanded use of communications.

Some of these are: Two way communications in industry, Mobile units installed in various services, Citizens band two way radio and many others. These jobs require operators, maintenance men, and technicians who have a thorough background in basic electronics.

Registration for this course will be on Tuesday evening, September 6, 1960 from 6:30 to 8:00 p. m.

Serve Oriental Chicken, Sauce

Here's a surprisingly novel all-American broiler-fryer recipe with an Oriental slant. It can be prepared in three easy steps.

Oriental Chicken

(Yield: 4 serving)

One broiler-fryer chicken, cut in serving piece, 1 cup cornflake crumbs, 1 teaspoon monosodium glutamate, 1 teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon pepper, aluminum foil, ½ cup evaporated milk, 1 tablespoon soy sauce.

Combine cornflake crumbs with monosodium glutamate, salt and pepper. Mix evaporated milk with soy sauce. Line shallow baking pan with aluminum foil.

Dip chicken pieces in evaporated milk, then roll immediately in seasoned cornflake crumb. Place chicken piece, skin side up, in foil-lined pan; do not crowd.

Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about one hour, or until tender. No need to cover or turn chicken while cooking. Serve with hot mustard sauce.

Hot Mustard Sauce (Yield: ¾ cup)
One-quarter cup prepared mustard, 1 teaspoon sugar, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon Tabasco, ½ cup evaporated milk, 1 teaspoon lemon juice.

Blend mustard, sugar and salt in saucepan. Stir in Tabasco and evaporated milk. Place over medium heat, stirring constantly; heat to serving temperature. Stir in lemon juice.

A salad of canned chop suey vegetables mixed with spinach goes well with the chicken. You'll vary of leafy spinach will be find the canned chop suey vegetables in most supermarkets. Any good in the salad.

Mix the instant coffee with a small amount of tap water, stirring to dissolve. Add remaining tap water and ice. A delicious variation of iced coffee is "coffee maple cooler."

Iced Instant Coffee

Two-thirds to one cup instant coffee, 2 quarts water, ice cubes.

Place instant coffee in pitcher or other large container. Add a small amount of water and mix well. Gradually add remaining water and mix well. (This helps to prevent excessive foaming.) Pour over ice in tall glasses. Serve with cream and sugar, if desired.

Coffee Maple Cooler

Two tablespoons instant coffee, 4 cups cold milk, ¼ cup maple blended syrup, whipped cream, nutmeg.

Dissolve instant coffee in one cup of the milk. Stir in remaining milk and syrup. Chill thoroughly. Pour into tall glasses and top with peaks of whipped cream and sprinkle of nutmeg.

Butterscotch Cookies

Ingredients: 1½ cups sifted flour, ½ teaspoon baking powder, ¼ teaspoon salt, ¼ cup butter or margarine, 1 cup firmly-packed light brown sugar, 1R egg (beaten until thick and lemon colored).

Method: Sift flour, baking powder and salt. Cream butter and sugar; stir in egg.

Stir in sifted ingredients. Force through a cookie press, about 1 inch apart, onto greased cookie sheet. Bake in moderate (375 degrees) oven 8 to 10 minutes.

Grill Spareribs on Labor Day

For that end-of-summer barbecue, that Labor Day celebration out of doors, either in your own back yard or at a park site, barbecued spare ribs are a mouth-watering suggestion.

For short-time cooking, from 35 to 40 minutes, place the ribs in heavy-duty aluminum wrap for pre-cooking during the "dripping" first stages. Then remove the foil, brush with barbecue sauce, and brown over the coals.

Barbecued spare ribs, being one of the most delicious of charcoal meats, can often be one of the messiest to cook. A delightful way to pre-cook in foil and then brown thoroughly over the coals.

1. Cut ribs into serving-size pieces; rub with cut side of a clove of garlic; sprinkle with salt and pepper.

2. Wrap three or four servings in heavy-duty foil, using a double fold and pressing ends in close.

3. Place packages over medium-hot coals; cook 30-45 minutes turning once or twice.

4. Remove ribs from foil; place on grill; brush with barbecue sauce; brown on both sides.

5. Brush again with sauce; re-wrap in the foil and place in warm place until ready to serve.

For ribs to be really good, the meat should pull away easily from the bone.

Chuck Steak With Anchovy Butter

One chuck steak cut 1-inch thick, unseasoned meat tenderizer, ¼ pound butter, softened; 1 teaspoon lemon juice, one 2-ounce can anchovy fillet, 1 tablespoon finely chopped parsley.

1. Sprinkle steak with unseasoned meat tenderizer according to directions on package.

2. Combine butter, lemon juice; beat until blended.

4. Rinse small ring mold with water; sprinkle bottom and sides with parsley. Press in butter mixture; chill until firm.

5. Grill steak over very hot coals approximately 5-7 minutes per side; have coals as close to meat as possible.

6. Dip mold into hot water; re-mold on bed of parsley. Serve with chuck steak.

To conserve charcoal, fold a sheet of superstrength aluminum foil into one-inch pleats to cover the bottom of the entire pit. Place only one-third to one-half as many briquets on the foil, because the reflection does the other half of the heating job.

Giant Shrimp Salads

Ingredients: 1 small head iceberg lettuce, 1½ pounds shrimp (cooked and deveined fresh or frozen), 4 hard-cooked eggs (sliced crosswise), 4 small tomatoes (skins removed and quartered), French Dressing.

Method: Quarter lettuce; cut each quarter into small chunks and arrange in individual salad bowls or on plates.

Place shrimp on 2 sides of each bowl. Arrange eggs in center. Garnish with tomatoes.

Simple Tricks Are Treats

It's the little extras that count. Friends around our dining table sometimes are as interested in a garnish, a simple sleight of hand, as in a main dish we've slaved over.

What's in our stock of tricks? An assortment of easy embellishments. Ideas picked up here, there and everywhere.

Most fun of all is to invent your own garnishes with what's in the kitchen and as you need them. Here's a grab-bag sampling of some of our own bagatelles.

Serve yourself - accompaniment never fail to beguile. Offer them with soup.

USE MINIATURE containers for these go-alongs. (Demi-tasse cups and spoons are fine.) Place them on a small tray for easy passing and fill each with a topping that will complement the flavor of the soup.

With jellied red madrilene or a bisque (a creamy seafood or tomato concoction) we like cucumber, avocado, pimiento, stuffed green olives, all diced; minced chives or scallions.

Sandwich partners next. Brown shelled walnut halves in hot butter and salt lightly. Delicious to munch with tuna salad between slices of good bread.

Or feature one of these sandwiches with partners starring pickles.

For a bridge-luncheon make heart, diamond, club and spade shapes from pimientos using 1-inch cutters. (Sets of these small cutters include playing card and other shapes.)

STACK FLAT bread-and-butter pickles in twos or threes, and top each stack with one of these pimiento pleasures.

For roast duck we've invented this fresh-tasting garnish. Pare oranges so they are membrane-free; slice into about 1/4-inch thick rounds.

Choose small onions and peel; slice into rounds just thick enough to stay together—they must not be separated into rings.

Roll the outside edges of the onion slices in mayonnaise and then in parsley minced finer than fine. Place each green-ringed onion slice on a round of orange.

FRESH PINEAPPLE for dessert? Remove the plum and cut into crosswise slices; with a small sharp knife remove the outer covering.

Cut out the core on each slice with a small heart-shaped cookie cutter. Amusing to serve with bouquets of sweet red cherries or a raspberries and spigs of mint.

Over the top of a frosted cake we like to fashion a large bunch of grapes. Fill in the shape of a cluster with sweet seedless grapes. Be sure to add a stem!

No decorating tube needed, and when it's time to create this frivolity we find teen-agers are more than willing aides.

Baked Flank Steak

Ingredients: 1 flank steak (2 pounds), 5 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1-3 cup finely diced onion, 1/4 cup finely diced celery (3 ribs with leaves), 1 1/2 cups soft bread crumbs (3 slices with crust), 1/2 teaspoon poultry seasoning, salt, pepper.

Method: Cut steak in half crosswise. Melt 4 tablespoons butter in heavy skillet (about 10 inches) over low heat; add onion and celery; cook until lightly browned.

Mix in bread crumbs, poultry seasoning, salt and pepper to taste. Spread dressing almost to edges of 2 pieces of steak; roll lengthwise; skewer open ends.

Brown meat rolls in remaining 1 tablespoon butter in skillet in which dressing was prepared.

Place rolls on rack in shallow roasting pan; cover tightly.

Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven until tender—about 1 1/2 hours. Sprinkle meat with salt and pepper. Slice crosswise just thick enough to keep dressing intact.

Juices in roasting pan may be used for sauce or gravy. Makes 6 servings.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Save one-pound baking powder cans and use them for steaming puddings.

For the French cuisine: brown a tablespoon of butter and stir in a teaspoon of vinegar; pour over a couple of fried eggs. Call the eggs au beurre noir.

Mince some parsley and scallion and add to eggs you are scrambling. Fresh flavor!

3 U.S. Olympic Shotput Aces Qualify for Finals Today

Americans Trail Russia by 26 Points as Track Events Open

Swimmers Carolyn Schuler, Bill Mulliken Bring 2nd, 3rd Gold Medals

By TED SMITS
Associated Press Sports Editor

ROME (AP)—America's husky shotput aces, favored to make a sweep of the medals, led the way today into the opening of the Olympic track and field competition, where the United States hopes to overhaul Russia in the unofficial team point standings.

Bill Nieder, Dallas Long and two-time champion Parry O'Brien didn't even bother to pull off their sweat suits as they qualified for this afternoon's shotput final.

Nieder, the former University of Kansas ace who holds the world record at 65 feet, 7 inches, and the other two Yanks easily tossed the shot past the 54-11 1/2 qualifying minimum.

The United States, trailing Russia by 26 points, also got rolling in its pursuit of points as Dave Sime, Ray Norton and Frank Budd eased into the second round of the 100-meter dash along with cowlid record holders Armin Hary of Germany and Harry Jerome of Canada.

The only other track and field event to be decided today, however, was the women's broad jump—where only one U.S. gal, the 1956 silver medal winner, Willye White of Greenwood, Miss., qualified.

Two Swimmers Advance
But while the U.S. swimming squad also advanced two for tonight's finals in the men's 100-meter backstroke event—Bob Bennett of Encino, Calif., and Frank McKinney of Indianapolis—all was not the best for Uncle Sam.

Brian Phelps of Britain, the 16-year-old European champion, shocked U.S. hopes by leading 16 qualifiers into Thursday's semifinals of the men's high diving event.

Gary Tobian of Glendale, Calif., the favorite in this event after pulling a surprise by winning the springboard gold medal, was fourth, and Bob Webster of Santa Ana, Calif., was ninth.

The three U.S. Entries, Joann Terry of Indianapolis, Irene Robertson of Ingleswood, Calif., and Shirley Crowder of Atlanta, were eliminated in the opening heats of the women's 80-meter hurdles. Miss Robertson was last in her heat, won by Russia's great Irina Press in 10.7 seconds, equalling the Olympic record set in 1956 by Australia's Shirley Strickland.

Suffer Setback in Rowing
The United States also suffered a setback in rowing, when the pair with coxswain from the Lake Washington (Seattle) Rowing Club was beaten by four lengths by Russia. America, defending champion in this event, gets a second chance to make Saturday's final in Thursday's repechages.

Sime, the Duke dandy from Durham, N.C., Hary and Jerome—all running in separate heats—were timed in 10.5, with Sime finishing third, the last qualifying spot, in his race. Hary and Jerome share the record of 10 flat.

Great performances in swimming Tuesday that won two gold medals gave the U.S. team 72 points, only one behind Germany and 26 points behind the Russians who were capitalizing in fields they were expected to dominate.

The swimming duels electrified a crowd of 10,000. And there were offbeat incidents to magnify the interest. Carolyn Schuler of Orinda, Calif., broke her own Olympic record in winning the finals of the 100-meter butterfly race. Bill Mulliken of Champaign, Ill., triumphed in the 200 meter breaststroke finals.

Miss Schuler's great victory was almost lost in the shuffle. They paid more attention to 14-year-old Carolyn Wood of Portland, Ore., who was just about in the lead at the turn in the butterfly and suddenly bumped into the lane buoy. She grabbed the chain and seemingly quit. She climbed out of the pool and ran into hiding, in shame. Later, she explained she had swallowed water and "couldn't go on."

Germany, pushing in the team battle, got a great boost in the aquatics from Dresden's diving doll, Ingrid Kramer. She copped the 10-meter (33 feet) platform title from Paula Jean Pope, Santa Ana, Calif., America's veteran of three Olympics. Paula burst into tears, knowing this was her last crack at Olympic competition.

Russians Spring Surprises
The Russians sprang two surprises. Viktor Kapitonov won the 175.3-kilometer (108.6 miles) cycling road race, beating out Italy's Livio Trape, in a sport Moscow never has bothered much with before.

And in fencing, the Soviet Viktor Jdanovich captured Russia's first fencing gold medal, the men's individual foil. The U.S. Arthur Axelrod, of New York, at 39, won the third place bronze—first time since 1932 that the Americans had done so well at fencing.

One of the great disappointments for the American team came in the wrestling. The last three U.S. entries were eliminated as Russia and her satellite East European comrades completely dominated the Greco-Roman division.

In the late morning men's track events, the three U.S. entries qualified for the second round in the 800 meters. Ernie Cunliffe of Claremont, Calif., eased in with 1:48.8, and Jerry Siebert of Willets, Calif., had 1:48.9. Tom Murphy of Brooklyn qualified by winning the final heat in 1:52.1.

A second U.S. rowing crew, also from Lake Washington, looked for another chance in the repechages after being beaten in the four oars without cox by Britain in the final 100 meters. The Yanks were Art Ayrault, Ted Nash, John Sayre and Dick Wallies.

19 Go to Post In Hambletonian

Richest Harness Race Slated Today

DU QUOIN, Ill. (AP)—Nineteen of the world's fastest 3-year-old trotters, with Uncle Sam and Elaine Rodney cast as favorites, awaited the bugle call for today's running of the $144,500 Hambletonian—richest harness race in history.

Hot and humid was the race day forecast.

The field of four fillies and 15 colts was spotted with strong contenders for the record winners purse of $85,019. But Uncle Sam and Elaine Rodney were regarded as the top choices for the 35th renewal of the sulky classic—the Kentucky Derby of harness racing.

A number of trackside observers predicted a record-breaking performance on the fast one-mile clay track of the Du Quoin State Fairground. Emily's Pride's 1:59 4-5 Hambletonian record was set in 1958 on the betless Du Quoin track.

Uncle Sam, with a 1:59 3-5 clocking in pre-Hambletonian competition, has been pronounced record for the first heat post time, 2:30 p.m. (CDT).

The bay colt suffered a bruised front foot in a race last week. However, driver-trainer Lou Huber Jr. said the bruise has healed.

One of Elaine Rodney's owners, James Kennedy, said his filly is "100 per cent ready." Clint Hodgins, Canadian reinsman, will drive Elaine from the No. 2 slot in a front tier of 10 trotters. Uncle Sam drew the No. 4 starting spot in the front tier.

The first horse to win two heats was the coveted Hambletonian Trophy and the winner's share of a gross purse of $144,500.14. Second money is $35,424.59, third $14,169.83 and fourth $7,084.92.

All but three of the 10 tacks who will report for the beginning of Miami University football drills Sept. 1 will tip the scales at better than 230 pounds. Only 217 pound Jack Tibbels, a two-year letterman from Port Clinton, O., weighs less than 220.

U.S. IN THE SWIM IN MODERN PENTATHLON — Contestants get off to a racing start in the 300-meter free style swim event of the Olympic modern pentathlon in Rome Tuesday. From top to bottom are Ahmed Ennachi of Tunisia; Robert Beck of the United States who won this race in 3:58; and Italy's Giulio Giunta. Beck, 23-year-old U.S. Navy lieutenant from San Diego, Calif., was leading in the modern pentathlon with 3,966 points.

Coach Russell Counts on Rock-Ribbed Defense

United High to Field Light Inexperienced Grid Squad

"We looked real lousy."

That was the comment of United High School Football Coach Ray Russell after watching his team scrimmage Rootstown of Portage County yesterday at United.

"We're real green, having lost nine of our 11 regulars from last year," the United coach explained. "Rootstown was able to move the ball against us but we didn't come close to scoring."

One consolation for Coach Russell, whose record at United shows that he is not accustomed to taking drubbings on the football field is that Rootstown is considered to have one of the toughest, if not the toughest, squads in Portage County this season.

The Eagles won five games and lost three last season but gone from that squad are eight gridgers who were graduated and two other lettermen, Dick Strong and Jim Harris, who have not reported for practice.

MANY of the United gridgers are 4-H members and have been tied up at various fairs since practice opened. Absences have kept real good look at what he will have to work with this season.

He knows he won't have a Jim Summer to rip up the middle of the opposing line or Ends Les Blanchard and Frank Shagnot to haul down the short passes—all three have been graduated.

Still, there are some bright spots for the 1960 Eagles amidst the dark clouds. Bob Koerlin, a 230-pound senior is back to anchor the middle of the line. He is a tough man to move.

Seniors Al Knizat, a guard, and Paul DeVille, a back, are back from last year's fine squad. Coach Russell had an outstanding crop of sophomores last year who picked up valuable varsity experience. These include John Hanna, Larry Marks, Dave and Ken Metzgar, Pete Schweigart, Jim Sturgeon and Don and Glen Willis.

KOERLIN APPEARS to have the starting center post wrapped up. Don Willis and Knizat have the inside track on the two guard slots. Glen Willis and Pete Schweigart have been holding down the starting tackle posts in practice.

Coach Russell says that Glen Willis could develop into one of the best linebackers in the county.

There are four ends who are about equal in ability. They are Pat Chestnut, Wade Courtney, Jim Sturgeon and Ron Hawkins. The coach says he may utilize this surplus of ends to carry in plays from the bench.

Chestnut is out of the picture for the time being with a dislocated shoulder. The doctor says it will probably be three weeks before the promising sophomore is ready to return to action.

Sturgeon will probably battle Hawkins for the starting berth at right end. Sturgeon has more experience but Hawkins has been impressive in drills. He is a junior but did not play last year. He did play football in junior high and as a freshman.

John Hanna will probably edge Larry Marks out of the quarterback spot although Marks is too valuable a player to move out of the starting lineup. He will probably run out of one of the other backfield slots.

HANNA, A JUNIOR, was groomed as varsity quarterback last year but he suffered a shoulder separation after the second game and was out of action for the rest of the season. Marks, then a sophomore, took over the quarterbacking and did an outstanding job.

Hanna will probably get the job back this season because he is a more accurate passer than Marks. Dan Jenkins, the fastest man on the squad, is also going to be tough to keep out of the starting backfield. Jenkins prefers to play on defense but Coach Russell wants to utilize his speed on offense, too.

Paul DeVille, who weighs only 140 pounds but is very strong, is another top backfield candidate. Dave Metzger and Roy Hartley are currently battling for the starting spot on the wing.

"We're primarily going to be a defensive team this year," Coach Russell commented. "You may even see us kicking on second down on occasions. We'll try to put the other team in a hole and then capitalize on their mistakes."

"We are light and inexperienced but we believe the squad has the will to keep winning," the coach added.

BESIDES THE scrimmage yesterday with Rootstown, the Eagles have worked out against East Canton since practice opened. United held its own in that scrimmage but East Canton has problems of its own.

United has joined the newly formed Turnpike Conference this season with Canfield, West Branch, Jackson-Milton, Springfield Local and Warren St. Mary's. However, since United has only one league game—the opener with West Branch on Sept. 10—the Eagles won't be eligible for the championship trophy this year.

Assisting Russell with the coaching are Larry Joseph, who is also head basketball coach, and Mel Klingler, former Youngstown Woodrow Wilson griddier and a 1960 Youngstown University graduate.

Tribe Drops 4-1 Tilt to Orioles

Jim Perry Fails In Try for 16th

BALTIMORE (AP)—Dick Stigman, scheduled to pitch for the Cleveland Indians in the opener of a two-game series with the Baltimore Orioles Tuesday night, was scratched from the lineup when he developed a virus infection.

The young southpaw was sent back to the hotel when trainer Wally Bock discovered that he was running a temperature.

Jim Perry took Stigman's place on the mound and absorbed his seventh defeat to go with his 15 victories as the Orioles took a 4-1 decision.

Bobby Locke, who pitched well in relief against the New York Yankees last Saturday, will open for the Indians tonight. He will be opposed by southpaw Steve Barber.

Chuck Estrada, 22-year-old right hander who is a strong candidate for rookie of the year honors, beat Perry. It was his 15th victory, tying him with Perry as the winningest pitchers in the American League. Estrada has lost eight.

A fourth-inning home run by Joe Morgan was the only run off Estrada. It was Morgan's first American League homer. The Indians' new third baseman also got an infield single. The only other Cleveland hits were singles by Rocky Bridges and Tito Francona.

The Orioles got a run in the first inning on a leadoff double by Jackie Brandt, an infield out and a sacrifice fly by Brooks Robinson. A homer by Gene Stephens gave them another run in the second.

Baltimore made it 4-0 in the third on a single by Gene Woodling and a home run by Jim Gentile.

Perry pitched scoreless ball over the next four innings and Jack Harshman retired the Orioles without a hit in the eighth.

The homers by Stephens and Gentile boosted the total hit off Perry this season to 29. That is only three short of the club record set by Earl Wynn four years ago.

Salem Booster Club Plans Family Night

The Salem Booster Club will kick off its 1960 membership drive with a Family Night program on Thursday at 8 p.m. in Pavilion No. 1 at Centennial Park.

Booster Club President Walt DeJane urges everyone to attend the program and meet the 1960 Quaker gridgers and their coaches. Head Coach Blaine Morton will show and explain some of the new equipment being used by the team this year.

This will be the first regular meeting of the Salem Boosters this season. Future meetings will be held every Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the Memorial Building.

Deadline Is Dec. 1, 1961 American Loop to Add 2 Clubs

NEW YORK (AP)—The American League was one step closer to 10 clubs today, with the strong probability the two still unnamed new members will be playing baseball in 1962.

The league brass meeting here Tuesday in one of its two resolutions stipulated that the proposed expansion to 10 members "be effected not later than Dec. 1, 1961." The resolution was passed unanimously.

The other resolution stipulated that each of the two new members "shave provide and conduct a professional club in such city as shall be approved by three-quarters vote of the present members of the league." This also was passed unanimously.

In making their decision, the club representatives used material from the report of their realignment committee, which met with the National League's expansion committee and the Continental League in Chicago, Aug. 2.

The next meeting is scheduled immediately following the World Series, and it probably will be a joint meeting with the National League, which has yet to hear the report of its expansion committee.

Pirates Increase Lead to 6½ With 5-2 Win Over Dodgers

Spahn Blanks Cardinals, 10-0

Top A.L. Clubs All Chalk Up Victories

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
If Milwaukee fails to overtake the front running Pittsburgh Pirates in the National League pennant race, it won't be Warren Spahn's fault.

The brilliant Braves' southpaw, pitching as well as at any time in his illustrious career, fired his third shutout of the season Tuesday night and the 50th of his career as he defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 10-0.

It was Spahn's sixth straight victory and ninth in 10 decisions since the All-Star break. His season record is 17-7.

The victory enabled the Braves to snap a three-game losing streak and move back into second place, a fraction of a point in front of the Cards. Milwaukee and St. Louis are 6½ games behind the Pirates, who defeated Los Angeles 5-2. San Francisco nipped Philadelphia 2-1 and Chicago topped Cincinnati 5-4 in afternoon games.

New York maintained its 1½ game lead over Baltimore in the American League race, defeating Kansas City 3-2 as the Orioles downed Cleveland 4-1. Chicago's third-place White Sox outslugged Washington 11-10 in 10 innings and Boston swept a two-night double header from Detroit 5-4 and 3-2. The first game went 15 innings and the second 10.

Spahn, nearing 40, shackled the Cards with five hits for the 284th victory of his 15-year career. In 10 of these, he's won 20 or more.

Home runs by Roberto Clemente and Dick Groat helped Pittsburgh's Bob Friend register his first victory over the Dodgers since July 23, 1958. A turnout of 41,143 pushed the Dodger home attendance over the two million mark for the second straight year.

Sam Jones struck out 14 and drove in the winning run in a pitching duel with the Phillies' Robin Roberts. Neither pitcher issued a base on balls; Jones won his 15th with a single in the fifth that scored Willie Kirkland, who had tripled home Orlando Cepeda with the Giants' first run.

Ernie Banks hammered a home run off Joe Nuxhall in the last of the ninth to break up a 4-4 deadlock and give the Cubs their fifth victory in the last six games with the Reds.

OUT OF DOORS with Field & Stream

By RUFUS LIDE

Trappers are calling me already about the coming open season on beavers. The main questions are: "Where can I trap a beaver?" and "Can you arrange a place for me to trap beavers?"

I feel like a person who has suddenly become the head of a Travel Agency without travel information. I have no idea where to tell them to do.

One thing game protectors will not become involved in is to arrange a place for hunters and trappers to hunt or trap — with the exception of state owned lands where permission is not needed. The ninny should read up on the laws and be governed accordingly.

PERSONALLY, I will make one exception . . . so many people have complained about beavers over a period of years so now is the opportune time to contact your game protector and he can provide enough trappers to clean out the beavers where they are not wanted. This will not be done except by direct request of the landowner.

Trapping season for beavers will be for six days, beginning Jan. 16 through Jan. 21, inclusive, in 1961.

The 1960-61 hunting licenses are now on sale at practically all license agencies. When you buy a license you may pick up a digest of the hunting laws which will answer most questions people are asking.

ONE HUNTER CALLED me very much concerned about an article he said he read in some newspaper that the pheasant season had been extended along with the rabbit season.

Here are the facts: cock pheasants can be legally taken on private lands Nov. 15 to Dec. 10, both dates inclusive. On state-owned lands, the open season on cocks begins Nov. 15 and ends Jan. 15, 1961, both dates inclusive.

Regardless of what you may read in any newspaper there could be an error. Read the digest of laws.

The Jesse Galbreath family near North Georgetown is delighted and excited since a little Bewck's wren has chosen an old clothespin bag to do her nesting. The bag hangs almost on the front porch where anybody can take a peek at it. These little birds like to nest near human residents.

Ankle Injury Keeps Janovec On Sidelines

Ron Janovec, the rugged 192-pound fullback whom Coach Blaine Morton is counting on to give the Salem Quakers a big punch up the middle this season, was expected to sit out a morning scrimmage today at Reilly Stadium against Youngstown Chaney.

Janovec sprained an ankle in a scrimmage Saturday against West Branch and was unable to work out yesterday. He spent most of the day in the whirlpool and the doctor says the griddle should be ready to return to contact work in a few days.

In fact, Janovec told Coach Morton he was ready to play today, but the mentor indicated that he would not take a chance on his star fullback and linebacker aggravating the injury in the scrimmage against Chaney.

Senior Jim Schuster has been moved back to center, the position he played last year, after a brief trial at tackle. Coach Morton has still not made up his mind on his starting tackles but he believes Schuster will do better at center.

Bob Elsner, who played tackle last year, has been switched to guard and has been looking good. Coach Morton said the scrimmage with West Branch on Saturday showed that his team needed considerable work on pass defense. The Quakers hadn't concentrated much on that phase prior to the scrimmage.

Remembering how much Akron Hoban tried to pass against the Quakers last year, Coach Morton hopes that his defenders will come around by the time of the opener against Hoban here a week from Friday.

Browns to Meet 49ers Saturday

Crowd of 30,000 Expected at Portland

FOREST GROVE, Ore. (AP)—The Cleveland Browns, now in their 15th professional football season, have played to more than 10 million fans, but Saturday night's game in Portland against San Francisco will be their first appearance in the Northwest.

A crowd of about 30,000 is expected to watch the Browns try to hand the 49ers their first exhibition game setback in four starts. Both Cleveland and San Francisco are shaping up as prime challengers for division titles.

Last year each club had a 7-5 record, and Cleveland tied with Philadelphia for runnerup to New York in the Eastern Conference. The 49ers tied for third with Green Bay in the Western Conference, which was topped by the league champs, the Baltimore Colts. San Francisco beat Cleveland last year, 21-20, in regular season play.

The 49ers this year include 30 veterans on the 43-member squad.

The receiving side of the 49er pass offense has been improved with addition of rookie Monty Stickles of Notre Dame, a 6-foot-3, 240-pounder contributing blocking strength, and Tom Osborne, also a rookie end, looking good on catching.

Y. A. Tittle and John Brodie have divided the passing chores in San Francisco's conquests of Dallas, Washington and Philadelphia, each completing 25 out of 35 attempts.

Veteran Hugh McElhenny, at 31, has featured the running attack, averaging 6½ yards a carry in the three exhibition games.

The Browns go into the game with three injured players—Gern Nagler, whose wrenched knee may keep him from duties at end; Wilmer Fowler, a halfback who has a pulled leg muscle; and tackle Dick Schafrath, who was kicked in the heel.

Youngstown Hosts Amateurs

Meister Tops Golf Qualifiers

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Eddie Meister of Cleveland shot a record five-under-par 67-70-137 to top the field in the Northern Ohio qualifier for the U. S. Amateur golf championship at Tippecanoe Country Club Tuesday.

It was the second year he had led the field. He will be playing in his 18th national amateur championship at St. Louis, starting Sept. 12.

Dr. Frank Bellino of Youngstown, playing on his home course, was second with a one-under-par 72-69-141. Dick Guardiola of Cleveland, qualifying for the first time, was third at 71-73-144.

Karl Schmidt of Akron was fourth with 72-73-145. Dan Carmichael of Columbus, the Ohio Amateur champion, holed a long putt on the final green for 74-72-146 to tie Ed Preisler of Cleveland, who had 77-69-146.

Preisler, believing he had qualified, left the course and was unavailable for a playoff. He yielded the fifth place to Carmichael and accepted the first alternate position.

Other alternates are Richard Small, Ashland, 72-76-148; Bill Peterson, Cleveland, 74-74-148; John Selus, Cresson, Pa., 77-72-149, and Vallier Anderson, Alliance, 78-71-149.

Tuesday Rainouts Force Changes In Softball Tourney

Rain forced postponement of Tuesday night's Salem Invitational Softball Tournament games at Kelley Field and brought about a schedule change for the rest of the week.

The revised schedule is as follows:

Tonight's Games
6. Canton Dolph's Tavern vs Youngstown Shangri-La
9. Akron Reds Bar vs Akron Marko Body Shop

Thursday's Games
7. Youngstown Avalon Gardens vs Canton Dumont Sports
8. New Brighton Merchants vs Youngstown Panno's
9. Youngstown Local 1331 vs Akron Pioneer Cleaners

The 7 p.m. game at Kelley Field tonight will be a Slo-Pitch League fray between the Jaycees and B&W Research. The other Slo-Pitch League games tonight will be played at Memorial Park. They bring together Scott's Candy and Eljer Co. at 6:30 on the north diamond and Perry Grange and Salem Stamping at 7 p.m. on the south diamond.

The kickoff return championship of the National Football League last season was won by Abe Woodson, playing his first full season for San Francisco. Woodson had an average of 29.4 yards for 13 returns.

Yugovich to Play With Detroit in Canton Tilt

Mickey Yugovich, 6-6 Youngstown University cager who played in the Salem Invitational basketball tournament last season, is expected to be with the Detroit Pistons of the National Basketball Association when they meet the Cincinnati Royals in an exhibition game at Canton Fieldhouse on Monday, Sept. 26.

General Manager Nick Kerbawy of the Pistons announced the signing of Yugovich on Saturday. A prep star at Youngstown Woodrow Wilson High School, Yugovich led Youngstown University to the NAIA tournament finals three straight years.

Reserved seat tickets for the Cincinnati-Detroit game are on sale at Fisher's News in Salem and Chuck's Barber Shop in Lisbon.

Questions and Answers

- Q—Which is the largest denomination of paper money in the United States?
- A—The $10,000 gold certificate Federal Reserve note.
- Q—What gave man his first knowledge of electricity?
- A—The Greeks gave amber the name "elektron," since they found that amber, when rubbed briskly, could pick up straws and small bits of paper. This gave man his first knowledge of electricity.

Lisbon Social Notes

The Past Tempers Club met recently with Mrs. Gertrude Chamberlain at her home on W. Maple St.

New officers took over, with Mrs. Leona McDewitt as president; Miss Bertha Webber, vice president; Mrs. Katherine Barton, treasurer; Mrs. Margaret Farmer, secretary, and Mrs. Jennie Carlisle, assistant secretary.

Social bingo was enjoyed, with Mrs. Farmer and Mrs. Carlisle winning prizes.

The next meeting will be Sept. 26 at the home of Mrs. Carlisle on W. Chestnut St., with Mrs. McDewitt assisting.

Mrs. Victor Williams of S. Lincoln Ave. was hostess to the Victory Club Monday night, with two tables of 500 in play. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. John Chilik and Mrs. James Babb.

Mrs. Chilik will entertain Sept. 12 at her home on Lisbon-Salem Rd.

MISS BARBARA DEVAN was honored Saturday evening on her 14th birthday anniversary when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Devan entertained at their home on N. Jefferson St.

Fourteen were present to enjoy the decorated birthday cake and lunch. Barbara received many nice gifts. The family spent Sunday in Pittsburgh and visited the zoo there.

The Brinker family reunion was held Sunday at Copeland Lake Park near Columbiana.

Officers selected for the coming year were Vance Brinker, president, and Miss Judy Brinker, secretary.

Miss Janet Jones daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John E. Jones of N. Market St., is home for a month's vacation from Ohio State University at Columbus where she attended summer classes. She will return to the university this fall.

Mrs. O.C. Caldwell of W. Lincoln Way returned home after spending the weekend with friends in Cuyahoga Falls, Akron and Lakemore. Sunday morning she was the guest speaker at Goodyear Heights Methodist Church in Akron and that night addressed the youth fellowship of the Methodist Church in Lakemore. At Lakemore she was the guest of the Rev. and Mrs. Byron Vanscyoc, a couple she had met on her trip to the Holy Land.

MR. AND MRS. LESTER Pribble of Wellsville Rd. will leave Friday for Athens, O., to visit with Mrs. Pribble's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Burt. Mr. Burt is confined to the hospital there following a heart attack suffered recently.

On Sunday the Pribbles plan to attend the Boswell family reunion at Ripley, W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Fleck of Tiffin are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Huston of E. High St. Mrs. Fleck and Mrs. Huston are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gunn and children, Debbie and Ricky, of Cincinnati are visiting until after Labor Day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frances Gunn of W. Lincoln Way.

Mrs. A. G. Coburn of Canfield, former Lisbon resident, who was injured in an auto accident and confined to Salem City Hospital, was removed to her home Saturday and is improving slowly.

WRONG EXPLANATION

GOLDSBORO, N.C.—Policeman Herman A. McDaniel walked up to a car a man was trying to start.

The man, under questioning, explained he had left his registration certificate at home.

Officer McDaniel arrested the man. It was McDaniel's car.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I am a very lonely teen-ager. Polio has left me with a withered arm and a limp. People shun me.

I've read books on how to get along with people but they don't apply to cripples. My parents have had nice parties and invited kids my age. Then don't invite me back. I've asked girls to go out with me but they find polite excuses to refuse.

I'm not hard to look at and my condition isn't bad enough to create pity. The worst part of it is the limp.

I'm not feeling sorry for my-

Juvenile 'Shook Up' By 'Mystery' Voice

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A juvenile offender is somewhat shaken up today over his attempt to steal an automobile.

The car belonged to Mr. and Mrs. John Longstreth of Tallmadge. They parked it in the street while visiting friends in Ellet, another suburb.

A 15-year-old boy took the auto and started to drive off. Minutes later there came a small voice from the back seat:

"Slow down."

The youth was so unnerved that he pulled the car into a school yard and took off on foot. Later he was taken into custody and held for juvenile authorities.

It seems the Longstreth's son, Jimmy, 3, had been sleeping in the back seat and was awakened when the car went into motion.

Cub Pack 3

Members of Cub Pack 3 of the First United Presbyterian Church and their families enjoyed a picnic recently at Centennial Park.

The invocation was given by the Rev. Bruce Milligan, who later spoke to the parents concerning the plans for the new year.

Cubmaster Rolin Herron conducted the business meeting. Leslie Brantingham, secretary-treasurer, asked the den mothers to have a complete membership list for the Sept. 14 planning meeting at 7:30 p.m. to enable the Pack charter to be completed.

The round table session was announced for Sept. 7, with the next Pack meeting set for 7:30 p.m., Sept. 28 in Fellowship Hall.

Games were played by the boys, with the assistance of the den mothers, Mrs. Richard Green, Mrs. Dan Sutherin, Mrs. Gerald Shasteen, Mrs. Rolin Herron and Mrs. Harry Barker.

Youngstown Democrat Named to Committee

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Volunteers for Nixon-Lodge today announced that John A. Coakley Jr. of Youngstown has been named to the executive committee of the organization. The committee will spearhead the drive to enroll thousands of Ohioans, regardless of their political affiliations, in support of the Nixon-Lodge presidential ticket, said Dr. Clyde E. Williams of Columbus, chairman of the organization.

EXPLAIN THAT ONE

INDIANAPOLIS—Police weren't too surprised to find a .22 caliber gun and a knife on a 16-year-old boy they arrested.

But officers were unable to explain how the youth obtained seven police car keys.

TV Addicts

Dear Ann: We have two sons, 6 and 8 years of age. They like to watch TV, which my wife thinks is fine because it keeps them out of her hair for hours at a time.

The trouble is at night they sit in front of the TV until they are so tired they can't see straight.

When I tell them to go to bed their mother says: "Don't nag the kids. They'll go to bed when they're tired."

She's a smart woman and is right about most things. Is she right about this? — OUT-NUMBERED.

Dear Out: Have you ever seen a 6- or 8-year-old who will leave a TV set and go to bed because he's tired? Chances are good you never have and you never will.

Youngsters need to be guided and directed. Your wife is letting her children down. Step in, Dad.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Salem News, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
